
Haviland planes—they were dubbed "ashoons"—only three are now in service. The rest have been junked. The initial cost of the planes was over a million dollars.

Eversole explained that the officials of the service place all the blame for accidents upon the pilots by a rule. It is technically required, he said, for flyers to leave under orders. Ordinarily, however, no orders are given them. If the pilot has an accident, the chiefs absolve themselves of any onus by saying: "Well, he was flying without orders."

"Bunk," says Majors' Aid.

Superintendent Majors could not be reached last night. Moore, however, issued a statement in which he characterized Eversole's testimony before the board as "the last will of a pilot who is passing from the service."

"It's all bunk," he said. "I can't remember ever seeing a drunken man in our shops or on the field. It's a swan song. I'm sorry that it ever came to light for it will besmear the name of the service."

The special investigation here is the outgrowth of the congressional investigation recently inaugurated. Postmaster General Hays has decided to make a thorough departmental probe in conjunction with the former inquiry, it is said.

Great secrecy is maintained at the hearings. The inspectors are not permitted to either affirm or deny the reports of the testimony.

ALL CHARGES DENIED

Minneapolis, Minn., May 12.—[Special.]—Reported charges of drunkenness and general inefficiency in the air mail service, made in Chicago yesterday by discharged employees, were emphatically denied in Minneapolis tonight by Maj. H. C. Zoll, national superintendent of air mail, two division superintendents, and pilots now in the service.

The charges were branded as a reprisal by employees discharged by C. Eugene Johnson of Chicago, pilot on the Minneapolis-Chicago division. Maj. Zoll pointed to the efficiency of the air mail as the best denial of the charges.

"When such rumors are circulated about the mail service," said Maj. Zoll, "people should look at the results attained. It will cause them to wonder how such results are possible if the planes are 'death traps' and the pilots 'drunkards.' The charges are absolutely false. During the last quarter the mail service has made a record of 88 per cent, which alone speaks for its efficiency."

Majors Denies Charges

Carl F. Egge, superintendent of the Minneapolis-Chicago division, and E. W. Majors, superintendent of the Cleveland-Omaha division and in charge of the Chicago field, Chicago, both joined in Maj. Zoll's denial.

"True, we had some unfortunate accidents while the twin De Havilland planes were being tried out," said Egge. "They were found unsuitable and the single motor De Havillands are now being used. There is not a pilot in the service who will not testify to their suitability. On the Minneapolis-Chicago division we made 87 per cent efficiency during April, and so far this month we have a record of 100, which means the planes have made the daily trip in both directions without mishap."

"The one day in April on which a trip was not made a blizzard was raging in Chicago, making it impossible to send a plane from there. The plane from Minneapolis, despite this weather, reached Chicago safely."

Wrath Shown by Majors.

Mr. Majors was indignant.

"The charges are preposterous," he said, "and are simply the malice of former employees who have been waiting a chance to attack the service because they are no longer in it. Check-boarding field is efficient in every particular. Never a ship leaves any of the fields in which the superintendent would not be willing to ride. The pilots are excellent aviators, efficient and conscientious. The planes are the best that can be provided and are well cared for. We welcome investigation."

DUTCH TOY WITH TRUTH IN REPLY TO OIL PROTEST

Washington, D. C., May 12.—[Special.]—A reply from the Dutch government to the United States note of protest relating to discrimination against American capital in the Dutch East Indies oil fields has been received by the state department. The reply, which states that the American protest came too late, after legislation had been enacted regarding the Djambi concession, is not satisfactory to this government and is also not in accordance with the facts.

There is nothing that the United States can do about the field referred to in the correspondence except to retaliate against the Dutch government, and this course is probable.

CRISIS NEAR IN GREAT BRITAIN'S LABOR SITUATION

Hint of Red Revolution Heard in London.

BY AMBROSE LAMBERT.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
[Copyright, 1921, by The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, May 12.—The British labor situation admittedly is most serious. The railway men will meet tomorrow to decide whether they will aid the miners by refusing to handle imported coal following the lead of the transport workers.

Should the railway men refuse to handle foreign coal the nation's activities will soon be practically at a standstill, unless volunteers can be found to do the work of the government in unloading the vessels and transporting the coal.

In some circles it is felt that England is nearer a radical revolution than it has ever been. There was a significant meeting of the cabinet today, to which Basil Thompson, the head of the British secret service, was called. It is said the ministers contemplated a propaganda campaign who are busy in constantly increasing numbers.

Bodies of troops and sailors from the navy are being rushed to Glasgow and South Wales, where trouble is expected.

Extremist Ranks Swelled.

Labor, generally, throughout the country is amalgamating. Workers who were formerly conservatives are now joining the ranks of the extremists. Hopes for compromise seem to be exhausted and the government now looks for a fight to the finish unless the coal strike speedily is ended.

BELGIAN DOCKERS ACT.

BRUSSELS, May 12.—The Belgian dock workers have decided to oppose by all legal means the loading of coal for England. It was announced here today. The dockers will take this action in order to show their solidarity with the striking British coal miners.

U. S. NEUTRAL EUROPE ALL IS CONCE

Harding States F Council Tab

BY ARTHUR SEARS H

Washington, D. C., May 12.—The Harding administration is to be distinctly marked by the resumption of American participation in allied councils, and the resumption of American participation in allied councils, and the resumption of American participation in allied councils.

For example, when the president in the past has refused to participate in the League of Nations, and all other questions are regarded by the administration as matters of European concern, it was stated today on behalf of the president.

Merely Following Trad

It has been the tradition of the Harding administration to refrain from participation in affairs of no concern to the United States, and the President has upon to carry out his pledge to the nation from such a position at variance with the acceptance of the Versailles treaty.

This is the answer of the president to those Republicans who have been criticizing the administration for resuming participation in allied councils and have been grave forebodings of the future. The president's answer is a cover-up to carry out beyond the line of dissent from European affairs the Republican party is in and involve us in European to an extent to make with the

Concerned in Economic

The administration promptly and in the effort to prove made known its intention to part in the settlement of the question.

This disclosure of policy strengthens the belief that the administration has no notion of undoing any of the boundary provisions of the Versailles treaty, and that if the treaty is accepted it is mainly the economic section.

The principal fear of the able senators has been that the administration is proceeding with a resubmission of the Versailles treaty eventually for ratification, particularly as it is known that several of the cabinet members of the cabinet in favor of the acceptance treaty with reservations.

Get Personal Assurance

Some of the irreconcilable lost no time in sounding President as to his intentions, and they had received assurances from executive that he does not countenance a resubmission of the Versailles treaty, and that if the treaty is accepted it is mainly the economic section.

The surrender of Germany allies on the reparations treaty has reduced senatorial criticisms of the administration because it has removed, time being at least, the possibility of the United States in reparations settlement.

The settlement was effected American representatives in their places in the allied of the reparations question, as much concern to the United States to Europe, because the soon many gets down to discharge obligations the sooner Europe cover economically and discharge obligations to the United States.

U.S. NEUTRAL IF EUROPE ALONE IS CONCERNED

Harding States Policy at Council Table.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
Washington, D. C., May 12.—[Special.]—The Harding administration stands to be distinctly understood as the resumption of American representation in allied councils is not going to involve or entangle the United States in affairs of purely European concern.

For example, when the settlement of the Silesian boundary question is taken up by the supreme council, Col. Harvey, the American ambassador to Great Britain, who has been designated to represent the president in that body, will not participate in the discussion. The Silesian and all other boundary questions are regarded by the administration as matters of purely European concern. It was stated authoritatively on behalf of the administration today.

Merely Following Tradition.

It has been the traditional American policy, it was pointed out, to refrain from participation in European affairs of no concern to the United States, and the President may be relied upon to carry out his pledge to disengage the nation from such participation at variance with this policy as would have resulted from unqualified acceptance of the Versailles treaty.

This is the answer of the administration to those Republican senators who have been criticizing the President for resuming representation in allied councils and have been uttering grave forebodings of the entanglements in European affairs to which such a policy, they thought, would lead. The administration takes note also of certain senatorial suggestions that the President's step represents a covert effort to carry the nation beyond the line of disentanglement from European affairs to which the Republican party is committed and involve us in European questions to an extent to make withdrawal difficult.

Concerned in Economic Questions.

The administration pronounces these hints and suggestions wholly groundless, all in the effort to prove that no one knows its intention to take no part in the settlement of the Silesian question.

This disclosure of policy tends to strengthen the belief that the administration has no notion of undertaking any of the boundary provisions of the Versailles treaty, and that if any part of the treaty is accepted it will be solely the economic sections.

The principal fear of the irreconcilable senators has been that the administration is proceeding with the intention of resubmitting the Versailles treaty eventually for ratification with reservations, particularly as it is well known that several of the most influential members of the cabinet are in favor of the acceptance of the treaty with reservations.

Get Personal Assessments.

Some of the irreconcilable leaders had no time in sounding President Harding as to his intentions, and reported they had received assurances from the executive that he does not contemplate a resubmission of the Versailles treaty. What the President apparently has in mind, according to this report of his press, is the negotiation of treaties with Germany and with the allies embracing such provisions of the Versailles treaty as the United States is willing to accept.

The surrender of Germany to the allies on the reparations terms has made the situation produced by the terms of the administration in the allied councils. The note was being at least, the possibility of having the United States in the reparations settlement.

The settlement was effected before representatives resumed their places in the allied councils. The reduced senatorial fears to the hope that at some future time will become involved too deeply in enforcement of reparations payments.

The administration maintains that the reparations question is of almost as much concern to the United States as Europe, because the sooner Germany gets down to discharge of its obligations the sooner Europe will recover economically and discharge its obligations to the United States.

A $7,000 "CLEANING" JOB

The photo-diagram illustrates how robbers yesterday got the payroll of the Stein, Spiesberger, Erman company. Two of the robbers, clad in dirty overalls, stopped Carl Lauer, messenger for the State Commercial Savings bank, at Powell avenue and McLean street. "We're cleaners," they announced, and a second later Lauer was hit on the head with a file one carried and a bucket in the hands of the other. Meantime two more robbers jumped from an auto and one held a revolver against Patrolman W. R. Lusk, who was guarding Lauer. The robbers then escaped with the $7,000 payroll.

PEACE WHEN MEN TALK FACE TO FACE—HARDING

Says Open Frankness Will Avert Strife.

Washington, D. C., May 12.—The hope was expressed by President Harding in an address tonight at a banquet of the National League of Masonic Clubs that he would see the day when men in responsible positions, speaking for their people, "could gather around a conference table to adjust their disputes."

"If the peoples of the world can only understand each other," he said, "and if men in authority can only face each other in speaking for the several peoples of the world, there will never be another conflict to block the progress of civilization. Rather than to contemplate a conflict or to enter into one, I would rather sit at a table and settle it in advance."

In suggesting that the problems of reconstruction were more serious even than those of war, the President admonished his audience that "it's up to you to put our republic on the straight-forward track of peace and constructive progress."

"When we are right we will be helping the whole world to get on the right track again," he said.

In a tribute to the principles for which Freemasonry stands, Mr. Harding declared that "all American respect in Masonry from first to last," the President said, "that has not made me a better man."

Resolutions adopted pledged support to the administration of "Brother" Warren G. Harding, endorsed the movement to rebuild the village of Belleau as an American memorial in France, and set Nov. 4 as "Washington's Masonic birthday."

DEATH OF JUDGE IS BLAMED UPON HIS TWO NURSES

Tulsa, Okla., May 12.—[Special.]—Complaints charging Muriel James and Goldie Gordon with the murder of Judge John Devereaux, former commissioner of the Oklahoma Supreme court, were filed today by W. F. Seaver, county attorney.

Both women admit that last week they went to a local bank and took a $10,000 note from a safety deposit box owned by Devereaux. The note was made payable to Devereaux and signed by Bird S. McGuire, prominent in state Republican politics. The women said they obtained the note from the safety deposit box at the instance of Devereaux, who gave them a signed order to the bank and key to the box. The note has not been found among the judge's effects.

People Asked to Contribute to Nonpartisan Judge Fund

The following appeal for popular subscriptions to the campaign fund of the coalition nonpartisan judicial ticket was issued yesterday by its officers:

Men and Women of Cook County: You are paying in increased taxes and exorbitant rents the price of the domination of the city, county, and state by the Thompson-Lundin machine. You will pay even more if it is successful at the judicial election of Monday, June 6.

Victory would give it the prestige to put through the legislature the tax boosting and revenue increasing bills now before that body. It would place the machine in control of the south park road and give it more millions to spend immediately.

More important even is the fact that success would place it in control of our courts, the last bulwark against the local political tyranny. With its own men on the bench there would be practically no check upon its extravagance and heedlessness of the public's rights.

There will be no chance of the machine's success if the voters of Cook county are thoroughly aroused and go to the polls. To arouse them money is needed.

Our opponents are reckoning upon this. They have raised, by assessing public employees, by levying tribute upon those who enjoy favors and "privileges," an enormous campaign fund. The lowest estimate places it at $1,000,000.

We do not seek any such campaign fund. We do not believe that it can either be raised or spent without injury to the community. We do need money to pay the legitimate expenses of the campaign—printing, postage, hall rent, etc. We cannot get it from those who want privileges or favors, for our candidates offer nothing to them. Therefore we appeal for it directly to the people.

Every man and woman in this county is directly interested in the success of our ticket. Every cent contributed by them to aid it is an investment in an insurance policy upon their own liberties and property rights. We ask them to help us.

Every dollar will count. Send checks or money orders to John C. Cannon, treasurer of the coalition nonpartisan judicial ticket, room 314 Hotel Sherman. Your contribution will be appreciated, however small.

It will aid to defeat the city hall machine and to prevent further increases in taxes and rents. It will aid in electing judges pledged to protect your liberty, property, and lives—judges who have refused to be creatures of the machine or to make their decisions in accordance with its orders received through the back doors of courtrooms.

HARDING MISSIVE ENDS DIVORCE LETTER INCIDENT

Washington, D. C., May 12.—[Special.]—President Harding today answered the complaint of Crandall Mackey, counsel for Dr. R. G. Lee Cole in a suit for absolute divorce against Mrs. Minnie G. Cole, relative to a letter written to Justice Wendell P. Stafford by Mrs. Caroline Votaw, sister of the President and friend of Mrs. Cole.

The chief executive, in a letter, expresses the opinion that the complaint should have come from Justice Stafford, but explains that a note has been written to Mrs. Votaw with a view to prevent any more such missives being sent to the court.

Mr. Harding also assures Mr. Mackey that the letter was written in a moment of impetuosity.

BERGDOLL "POT OF GOLD" SEEN ON KITCHEN TABLE

Romig Says That's Last Glimpse He Had.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.
Washington, D. C., May 12.—[Special.]—The mysterious $106,000 pot of gold involved in the escape of Grover C. Bergdoll, the millionaire draft slacker, and his subsequent reappearance in Germany, was traced by the house investigating committee today to the kitchen table in the Bergdoll home in Philadelphia.

Soon the committee hopes to get closer to its present location. The committee also hopes to establish whether the story of the burying of the gold in the mountains near Hagerstown, Md., was a hoax to enable Bergdoll to escape from serving his five year sentence for draft dodging.

The Bergdolls' "Man Friday."

James E. Romig, better known as "The Judge," the round faced and jovial handy man of the Bergdoll family for the last twenty-seven years, was the principal witness at today's hearing. He was at the Bergdoll home in Philadelphia when Grover Bergdoll escaped.

"The Judge" told how in the fall of 1913 he came to Washington from Philadelphia in an automobile with Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll, mother of the escaped slacker, with enormous bundles of gold certificates and obtained the gold coin which figures so conspicuously in the case.

Romig did not know where Mrs. Bergdoll got the bills, he said, but first saw them at the Bergdoll residence when Mrs. Bergdoll was busy counting out stacks of "tens, twenties, and hundreds."

Traveling Stocking Bank.

When they were traveling to Washington together, he said Mrs. Bergdoll carried a large part of the paper money in her stockings.

"She could not carry all that roll in her stockings, could she?" a member of the committee gasped.

"Well, quite a lump of it, I'll tell you," Romig responded, adding she carried the rest of it in a satchel.

On one occasion, Romig said, he and Mrs. Bergdoll carried $45,000 in gold back to Philadelphia. Later they took $60,000 more. It was "done up" in bags of $5,000 each. When they arrived at the Bergdoll residence, he helped Mrs. Bergdoll carry the gold into the kitchen, he said.

The last he saw of the money was when it was standing unguarded on the kitchen table, he said. He never even heard of it again until Bergdoll, then a prisoner at Fort Jay, told him the war department was going to parole him long enough to go hunting for gold.

IN CHICAGO FIRE

Woman Who Aided the Survivors Is Here for Music Makers' Convention.

MRS. JOHN W. EVANS.

Mrs. Emily Child Evans, a heroine of the Chicago fire, is here from Omaha, Neb., for the first time in many years. She came with her husband, John W. Evans, to attend the convention of musicians at the Drake hotel.

Mrs. Evans, now 70 years old, rounded up sixteen hayrack loads of clothing and food for the fire sufferers and converted St. Anne's church into a maternity hospital. She was then 16 years old, "with long, curly hair." Last night she entertained the musicians with dialects and impersonations. She was an impersonator of national prominence.

COOLIDGE MUM ON WHAT OCCURS AT CABINET MEET

Washington, D. C., May 12.—[Special.]—Senators who have been hoping that Vice President Coolidge now that he sits in cabinet sessions, would get chatty with them about "goings on" in the cloister of the executive circle are disappointed.

Never a garrulous individual, the vice president since joining the cabinet group has become a veritable sphinx. Of course the senators cannot criticize the vice president for not loosening up and letting them in on secrets from the White House, but they think he might do it once in a while just to be chummy. But they have yet to hear a syllable from his lips on the subject of what occurs at the executive end of the avenue.

This being so, the senators are hoping that Mr. Coolidge is just as mum about senatorial secrets when he gets to cabinet meetings. Judging by his sense of fairness, they believe he is.

BEAUVAIS FINDS MARY KELLY TO AID FIFPS CASE

Montreal, Quebec, May 12.—[Special.]—Fred Beauvais considers that the defense in the Stillman divorce case will have a most important witness in Mary Kelly, former maid for Mrs. Stillman, whose return from Ireland has been announced. The whereabouts of the ex-maid was a matter of great concern to the attorneys for Mrs. Stillman, because it was alleged she discovered the "Dearest Honey" letters in an escritoire at the Stillman country home near Tarrytown, N. Y.

Not only is Mary Kelly expected to deny she found the letters, but she also will furnish a valuable link in the chain of testimony concerning the legitimacy of Guy Stillman. Beauvais traced the ex-maid to Ireland and immediately informed Mrs. Stillman's attorneys. They, in turn, urgently requested her return, and it was reported here today that she was stopping with her sister at Tarrytown, N. Y.

It was learned that Beauvais has played a prominent part in marshaling the Canadian witnesses for Mrs. Stillman in an effort to discredit the "ladder and keyhole" witnesses who aided the banker by appearing before Referee Gleason at New York.

PEACE WITH ERIN "NOW IN SIGHT," GREENWOOD SAYS

BY JOHN STEELE.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
DUBLIN, May 12.—"The end of the Irish controversy is in sight."

This statement was made this afternoon by Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary of Ireland, in an exclusive interview.

"Ireland, under the home rule law, can get all she wants," he continued. "The whole policy of the British government and of my administration in Ireland has been to hand over the government of Ireland to the Irish and, after the election, which is now impending, the right and power to govern Ireland will be transferred to the southern and northern parliaments."

Hopes for Irish Harmony.
"The accepted leader of the southern parliament is Eamon De Valera. The northern parliament, after May 24, will have as its accepted leader Sir James Craig. Both these leaders can pledge and bind the whole of Ireland."

"They have already met and, in my opinion, it is their duty to meet again and I hope they will."
"They have the power and, I am sure, they desire to bring peace to their own country. If they want the imperial government to help in any way, the government will gladly help."
The elections in southern Ireland will be completed tomorrow when 128 Sinn Féin members will be returned uncontested. Conditions in Ireland have been better the last few days and it is hoped that a truce will soon be effected. The situation in Dublin was so much improved today that the curfew was extended from 10 p. m. to 10:30 p. m.

DUBLIN CASTLE HOPEFUL.
DUBLIN, May 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The recent meeting of Sir James Craig, premier designate for Ulster, and Eamon de Valera, the Irish Republican leader, "must be regarded as a step toward peace."

Three burglars were captured by the New City police early this morning after they had broken into the A. C. Drug drug store at 1355 East Marquette road.

The thieves were overheard by a neighbor while removing the iron bars from a rear window. The police reached the scene as the burglars were loading their loot into an automobile. The driver sped away, deserting his companions. The policemen fired fifteen shots before the trio surrendered.

POLE INSURGENTS LAY FOUNDATION OF NEW REPUBLIC

BY L. C. WALTER.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
[Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]
BAIGNOW, Upper Silesia, May 12.—Count Mathias Melchior, commander in chief of Korfanty's insurgent army, noted as a gambler, artist and soldier, former reichstag member and all around adventurer, is leading the insurgents incognito, using the name Dolla, but admitting his history as a German citizen.

"I served fifteen years in the reichstag and fought for Germany against the Russians," he said.

"This uprising was a natural reaction against German brutality. My plan was to take the mining districts of Beuthen, Kattowitz and Gliwice and then to extend our lines to the Czech-Slovakian frontier. The first phase of the campaign has been successful. Our next moves will be of diplomatic and political nature."

"We cooperated with the allies. There was no friction with the French, but, unfortunately, we clashed with the Italians who marched with German organizations. We deeply regret that Italian lives were lost."

Small credit for the apparent success of the uprising is being given the Warsaw cabinet by the rebels and sharp criticism is heard of the attitude of Premier Witos, whose party organs consistently have combated the insurgents' movements.

Leaders of the peasant party fear that Korfanty may use his success as a stepping stone to the presidency of Poland.

War between Germany and Poland for possession of Upper Silesia continues to hang in the air, despite the armistice concluded by Korfanty with the interallied authorities at Oppeln. That Germany will accept the proposed demarcation line is considered highly improbable.

SOVIET RUSSIA RECOGNIZED IN BRITISH COURT

LONDON, May 12.—The Court of Appeals today decided that the British government had recognized the Russian soviet government as a de facto government and dismissed a case involving some pulpwood. The importance of this decision lies in the fact that it clears the way for M. Krasin to operate the trade agreement, which he arranged with the British.

Lord Justice Bankes held the soviet government had been recognized by the British and therefore it was not within the jurisdiction of the courts to consider the justice and morality of the soviet's confiscation of goods.

Lord Justice Warrington said an act done by a state recognized by its majority's government must be entitled to the same respect as the act of a sovereign state.

HEITLER SAYS HE'LL TELL ALL; HALTS SENTENCE

By promising to supply the government with "important information" in the famous $175,000 booze coup for which he and two accomplices were convicted of conspiracy, "Mike de Pike" Heitler yesterday won another postponement of his sentence before Federal Judge Evan A. Evans.

Heitler appeared in court with "Mannie" Greenberg and "Bob" Perlman. Just as Judge Evans was preparing to announce the time of the sentence he jumped to his feet.

"Your honor," he exclaimed, "that liquor deal was all a frameup. I never made a cent out of it. If you will grant me a continuance, I'll give some important information."

The judge hesitated a moment, but finally announced he would give Heitler until Tuesday to supply the additional information. Heitler's attorneys, after a conference outside of court, declared there would be nothing sensational in the revelations.

JURY CLEARS GRANDFATHER.

Herman Schieve, 71, crossing watchman in Riverside, was acquitted by a jury before Judge Feil in the Criminal court yesterday of charges concerning his 13-year-old granddaughter, Edna Schieve. The defendant contended his family is conspiring to obtain control of his property.

BERLIN, May 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The cabinet of the new German government, which was not built out of materials anywhere, is in the process of being formed. There is a possibility that Chancellor Brüning will crack shortly.

HAMMERS BUSY IN BERLIN; NEW CABINET WABBLY

Has Only Three Legs;
Needs Four.

BY GEORGE SELDES.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]
BERLIN, May 12.—[By wireless.]—
All political hammers are out, and the new German coalition government, which was not built out of the strongest materials anyway, is already feeling the blows. There is every indication that Chancellor Wirth's cabinet will crack shortly and probably collapse.

The cabinet is now standing on three legs—the Catholics, Socialists, and Democrats. But the Democrats already are wobbly, and inasmuch as it is a minority government, depending on the good will of the Independent Socialists and others, its life is not expected to be long.

Foreign Portfolio Open.
Dr. Cuno, a director of the Hamburg-American line, has been offered the foreign ministry, but his refusal is expected. Dr. Cuno is on his way to the United States, and by the time he reaches New York the cabinet probably will have collapsed.

Meanwhile the Junker, Nationalist, and Conservative newspapers are attacking Dr. Wirth for "signing away Germany's liberties and worldly possessions." The papers say acceptance of the allied ultimatum means slavery.
Some say that France will occupy the Ruhr basin within five months anyway.

"OPERATIONS POSTPONED."
DUESSELDORF, May 12.—[By the Associated Press.]—Gen. Degoutte, commander of the allied forces on the Rhine, arrived here this morning from Mayence, and immediately ordered the preparations for occupation of the Ruhr to cease. It was remarked among the military officers, however, that the order said "the operation has been postponed," and not entirely abandoned.

FRENCH TROOPS MUTINY
BY JOHN CLAYTON.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]
PARIS, May 12.—[By Wireless.]—
With the German acceptance of the allied ultimatum announced, serious dissensions have broken out among

French troops mobilized for service in the Ruhr district.

Conservative newspapers this morning print a story of a mutiny in the 12th infantry regiment at Toulon, where a noncommissioned officer was killed with stones and seriously injured by men of the 19th class.

Humanite declares that certain units of this class, while entraining for the Ruhr district, sang the "Internationale," the soviet Russian anthem.

Red Agitators Busy.
Red agitators have been using the mobilization for extensive propaganda among the impressionable boys from 22 to 23 years old who were called for duty in the occupied zone. Since it has become apparent that the Ruhr district will not be occupied, the propaganda has redoubled their efforts.

This propaganda movement has been traced directly to Moscow's propaganda headquarters in France. Moscow regards young soldiers as fertile ground for propaganda, and it is doing its utmost to instill revolutionary doctrines.

Democrats Tie Up House
Action on Tariff Bill
Washington, D. C., May 12.—[Spe-delayed action on the emergency tariff bill.

Strong sentiment is evident in the house against the senate provision which extends the war trade board control over imports of dyes. Representative Young of North Dakota, who introduced the bill originally in the house, declared himself as opposed to the dye provision.

Northwest Suburbs Seek Funds for New Hospital

Leading citizens of Jefferson Park, Norwood Park, Edison Park, and Park Ridge, working in cooperation with the physicians of those suburbs, are asking the support of the people of the district for an eighty-five bed hospital which they propose to build in Raven street between Oak Park and New-

Dr. Leon Bowes of Norwood Park is president of the board; Fred B. Eadon of Jefferson Park is treasurer, and Fred Stagg of Park Ridge is secretary.

FILIPINOS ARE "NOT SO BAD" MISSION FINDS

"Have Done Fairly Well" at Self-Rule.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]

MANILA, P. I., May 12.—A preliminary survey of conditions in Manila has led the Wood-Forbes mission to the conclusion that the things in the islands are "not so bad as they have been painted," and that the Filipinos "have done fairly well with self-government" during the last eight years. An examination of the budgets, however, shows that the expenses of the government have doubled since Mr. Forbes was governor of the islands. The courts are clogged with untried cases and many charges of graft and inefficiency have been reported to the commission.

Filipinos Defend Rules.
The Filipinos replied that their government was not worse than that of the average American city, and they likened their politicians to professional who run affairs at home. The idea of separation from the United States is not popular, but the Nationalist party leaders are united in a plea for independence. The Americans here and many Filipinos of prominence regard with some suspicion the ambitions and practices of local politicians. The Philippine head counsels holding on to America's apron strings, but the Philippine heart cries for independence, with the superior white race barred from sovereignty.

Search for New Governor.

It was fully expected here that Gen. Wood would be appointed governor general and he would have been well received. Mr. Forbes also was offered the job by President Harding, but he declined on account of his health. The problem now is to get a new man for the position.

President Harding is said to have considered Justice Elias F. Johnson, who for twenty years has been a judge of the territorial Supreme court. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan Law school and has done much to uphold American law and prestige here.

The mission has been delving into stories of graft and other evils, but so far has found no indication of widespread corruption. The mission, which is on the eve of departing for the northern provinces, does not expect to leave the islands before Aug. 1.

PLAYGROUND BILL LOOKS INNOCENT; O, WHAT A SHOCK!

Aldermen Find 5 Mills
Means $8,265,856.

BY OSCAR E. HEWITT.

"It must be a bull."
"It surely is an error."
"It's a mistake—it must be."
Those were the comments yesterday after the first session of the new council committee on efficiency and economy, wherein "it almost committed another blunder," as one alderman expressed it.

The "bull" is a bill before the legislature to permit the Chicago board of education to levy a playground tax annually of $8,265,856, from which the board would get about $7,852,563 a year net. But it did not show itself in that blunt form to the committee.

The purpose of the existence of the committee is to reduce municipal expense and obtain more efficiency for the dollars spent. Ald. Eaton is the new chairman of the committee, and yesterday was its first session. When house bill No. 257 showed up the aldermen saw the chance at once to reduce the corporate expense.

Provisions of the Bill.
This bill provides that the school board may "take control and maintenance of all public playgrounds now owned or hereafter acquired by any such city, and shall equip, maintain, and operate the same for the moral, intellectual, and physical welfare of the children and persons using same."

To that point the idea appealed to the committee. The city has sixty-eight playgrounds, and approximately fifty-three of them are located near schools. If the bill passes the school board could be persuaded to take over these fifty-three and pay the cost of operating them.

The next section of the bill says that "the city council shall, upon the demand and under the direction of the board of education, annually levy, in addition to the amount of money now authorized to be raised, a sum not to exceed 5 mills on each dollar of taxable property."

Their Idea of 5 Mills Taxes.
"What does 5 mills mean in tax money?" asked Ald. Steffen.
"Between $500,000 and $600,000 on one-third valuation, but about $800,000 at present on one-half valuation," spoke up some one.
"I hesitate to endorse any raise in taxes," remarked Ald. Clark. The discussion went on, and it was apparent that a majority of the committee probably favored endorsing the bill. However, no one made a motion to that effect and the committee adjourned.

Then Clark and Steffen immediately found out that 5 mills on $1 is the same as a tax rate of 50 cents on each $100 assessed valuation. That is a larger rate than was levied last year to support the entire Cook county government.

Then They Look Up Figures.
They looked up the appropriations for city parks, playgrounds, and bathing beaches. For the entire bureau only $607,550 was appropriated last year. That included the full sixty-eight playgrounds and seventy-two small parks—none of which are to be transferred to the school board—all of the bathing beaches, pools, and forestry outfit as well as the administration of the bureau and a few repairs.

The total asked this year for every activity of the bureau is $1,062,996, which is said to be liberal. Yet the bill proposes to give the board of education a tax extension of $8,265,856 for playgrounds alone.

Chairman Eaton sent letters to Corporation Counsel Ettelson, Controller Harding, and President Davis asking data pertinent to the bill.

Ald. Schwartz Offers His Views on Traffic Problem
"Abolish the board of supervising engineers. Stop the powers of the state utilities commission to relate in any way to the Chicago street car system. Then create a single body to handle Chicago's transportation. That is my advice to Chicago." Ald. Ulysses S. Schwartz, chairman of the city council committee on local transportation, offered these suggestions yesterday when speaking as guest of honor at the luncheon of the Kiwanis club in the Morrison hotel.

Aurora Doctor President of Homeopathic Association
Dr. G. E. Dienst of Aurora was elected president of the Illinois Homeopathic Medical association yesterday at the sixty-third annual meeting in the Auditorium hotel. Other officers elected were: Vice presidents, Dr. C. A. Harkness, Chicago, and Dr. Hyda West, Woodstock; secretary, Dr. J. H. Roese, Palatine; treasurer, Dr. Rich H. Street, Chicago.

DAIRY FARMERS PROTEST STATE TEST OF HERDS

Some Labeled Tubercular
Aren't So, They Insist.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Medical and state authorities are taking opposition in testing cattle for tuberculosis among northern Illinois dairy farmers who supply milk to Chicago. Many farmers insist the test is inaccurate. "Protesting bitterly, 400 producers met at C. E. Beverly's home, near Elgin, yesterday to fight the case to a finish."

The matter came to a climax a few days ago when Dr. W. W. Welch, assistant state veterinarian, of Elgin, issued a quarantine on a herd of thirty cows. He claimed half of them had tuberculosis. The cows had been bought by Frank C. Dunning for J. H. Dunning of Lafayette, Ind., and were to be shipped to New Orleans.

Dunning's test, Mr. Dunning said, Dr. A. W. Blank to examine the herd and refused to allow the letter to be branded on the left jaw of the cow, as required by the law.

Chief Veterinarian Invited.
"That cow has been passed on as being free from tuberculosis," said Mr. Dunning, pointing to a Holstein, "but I am positive she is infected with the disease. I intend to show by post-mortem that she has tuberculosis, and I will also prove that one of the cows passed as a reactor by the veterinarian is not a tubercular."

J. A. J. Peters, state veterinarian at Springfield, had been invited to attend the meeting.

"If the state veterinarian does not come to this meeting, I shall remove the tags from the ears of every cow that has been labeled as a reactor, and as I please," Mr. Dunning threatened. "I'll move these cattle, law or no law. I stand to lose $10,000 on this lot of cows."

Second Case in Few Months.

This is the second case of the sort in the last few months. About the first of the year, Mr. Dunning helped Dr. F. J. J. of Mexico City, Mexico, buy a herd of 100 dairy cows from farmers near Elgin. When these were tested by interstate shipment by Dr. Welch and federal government veterinarians, they were found to be infected with tuberculosis. They are now under Harry J. Loose, for years a model policeman, an author, and a lecturer, is in trouble.

Fussy police regulations do not take into consideration the demands of a more public career. Whether Police Officer Loose is to remain on the force or is to be free to respond to every call of publication and platform will be determined by the police trial board next Wednesday.

Charges filed with the civil service commission allege Loose was absent without leave from April 28 to May 6. At his home, according to the report submitted to Chief of Police Fitzmorris, it was said he was out of the city. He was suspended May 7.

For six years Loose was on special duty with the Juvenile Protective league. It was while engaged in this work, presumably, that he obtained data for "why-girls-leave-home" lectures that later made him popular with morals mentors and others.

In 1914 Patrolman Loose was chief investigator for the city crime commission. Here again the opportunity for gathering valuable information was to result in something more than a formal report. Only a few months back the Christopher Publishing house of Boston put out a book entitled "The Shamans." Harry J. Loose was the author. The book, which undertook to expose the nefarious operations of a "10,000,000-burglar trust" having headquarters in Chicago, enjoyed a wide circulation.

But while the public paid tribute at $2 a copy to the genius of the policeman of parts, rumors that his enterprise was not accorded the same enthusiasm in certain other quarters were current.

"They may get Loose when he goes before the trial board," said one of the suspended policeman's former associates last night, "but what if they do? He'll just write another book or lecture telling policemen how to proceed when unjustly accused of neglect of duty."

PARLEY MAY END BUILDING TIEUP WITHIN TEN DAYS

See Compromise on $1 or $1.05 an Hour.

BY ARTHUR M. EVANS.

A possible lifting of the building trades deadlock within the next ten days was in the wind yesterday, when both sides began to talk of a conference early next week, with a view of reopening negotiations. A rate of $1 an hour for skilled workers, or possibly $1.05, seemed to be the prevailing guess as to the basis of a settlement.

The unions are still standing pat for the old $1.25 an hour rate, while the contractors say that when the controversy is reopened they will ask that the schedule be shoved back to the 1918 basis of 87½ cents, instead of to the $1 mark which they offered. This widening, they point out, gives plenty of space for a compromise somewhere around the $1 rate.

Want Plenty of Work Assured.

The unions are also raising the question of whether the builders can guarantee that acceptance of a reduced wage will result in enough resumption of activities to put all the building craftsmen to work. The contractors say a cut to $1 an hour will, at any rate, start up the $10,000,000 worth of buildings now tied up by the lockout.

They argue, too, that if wage deflation is accepted before June 1 many contracts for new buildings will be let which otherwise would be held up for another season because contractors want concrete work on new structures all finished and the buildings closed in for interior finishing before cold weather sets in next fall.

Other Cities Involved.

Yesterday a string of large industrial cities became involved in the Chicago situation. Cleveland, Indianapolis, Pittsburgh, Kansas City, and Chicago, "closed shop" towns at present, all have building strikes and tieups. The issue in each hovers around a proposed wage cut of approximately 20 per cent.

Yesterday they began to agitate the calling of a conference some time next week of the building interests from the five cities to work more or less in unison. It is estimated that nearly $50,000,000 of buildings are now tied up in the regions in question.

MILK THROWN IN SEWER TO BOOST PRICE, IS CHARGE

Investigation into the high price of milk in Lake county, Indiana, disclosed yesterday that many cans of milk are being poured in sewers daily so the supply will not exceed the demand—and there will be no "reason" for lowering the price.

It is declared that the Milk Producers' Cooperative Marketing company, having some 17,000 members in Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconsin, thus disposed of 1,700 cans, about $4,720 worth, at Gary and East Chicago, Ind., a few days ago, and that in April the number of cans thus deliberately spoiled averaged over 500.

The milk producers' company, it is said, has a place in Gary, at 1530 Madison street, where the "surplus milk" is taken and separated from the butter fat before it is poured into the sewer.

$20,000 THIEVES TAKEN BY COP POSING AS BUYER

Paul Stapleton of 1863 Seward street asked Detective Sergeant Wachholz if he wanted to purchase a new suit taken out of a box shipped by the American Railway Express company. The sale was made.

Stapleton and George H. Moran, 5231 Ellis avenue, both drivers for the express company, were arrested. They confessed they had taken perhaps $20,000 worth of goods from the company in the last few years. They also confessed robbing the drug store of Abe Margolis at 534 West 18th street, taking 100 gallons of alcohol and 500 pints of whiskey.

They implicated Joseph Roman, 566 18th street, and William Pontsch, 353 West 16th street, in this affair. Both were arrested.

On their stories Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ziupa, 1916 South Halsted street, were arrested charged with receiving stolen property.

OUT OF WORK, TRIED SUICIDE.
Sam Silverman, 1255 South Millard avenue, drank a bottle of iodine yesterday in Grant park. Policeman Joseph McKamey rushed him to St. Luke's hospital. He was out of work and dependent.

PROTESTS DELAY PASSAGE OF U. S. GRAIN MEASURE

Washington, D. C., May 13.—(Special.)—Eleventh hour opposition by grain exchanges to the Tinchin bill for the regulation of trading in grain futures caused discussion on the measure to be prolonged in the house today to such an extent that final action was not taken. It is expected, however, that the bill will be passed tomorrow by a comfortable majority.

Members of the house received numerous telegrams today from the various grain exchanges protesting against the bill. Representative Tinchin, in commenting upon the telegrams, insisted that the bill had been approved by President Joseph Griffin of the Chicago Board of Trade, and that the attacks now made upon it are the work of speculators.

Heart Attack Blamed
John Robertson, 57 years old, died suddenly yesterday in the Merchants Loan and Trust company bank, 112 West Adams street. He had been subject to attacks of heart disease, according to his brother, David C. Robertson, 4559 Greenwood avenue.

WHAT THE CASE OF JUDGE SCANLAN MEANS.

Judge Kicham Scanlan has had a reputation in this community for many years for courage and for character. When he tells the facts of his experience with the powers of the city hall his fellow citizens know that they are facts.

What are these facts? Judge Scanlan gave a decision in a suit in which the city hall was interested. The decision was not acceptable to the city hall. He also sentenced a politician of the city hall machine to jail for contempt of court.

For giving decision in accordance with his view of the law, and for enforcing the authority of the court against a politician who flouted it, Judge Scanlan "received a message" from the powers. It was: "You're through."

No better illustration could be had of what the Lindbergh-Thompson machine proposes to do with the courts.

If a judge, acting under his oath of office and in obedience to the law as he sees it, offends the city hall bosses—he's through.

Judge Scanlan and other sitting judges of the Circuit court, who, the city hall realizes, will not obey orders, have been denied reappointment by the city hall machine. If the machine has its way at the polls in June, they are through. In their places will be a handpicked lot of judges which the city hall expects will take orders.

If any of these should rebel he, too, will be through if the machine can beat him at the next election.

What does this system of political terrorism mean?

It means that no citizen's rights will be worth a canceled stamp if he has offended or opposed the political powers which have put their henchmen on the bench. It means that no judge, if he regards his job as worth the sacrifice of his conscience, will dare to apply the law if it runs against the interest of the machine.

Justice and law virtually cease to be in such a situation. If the city hall wins in June we have gone a long way toward disaster. This would mean not only that Judge Scanlan is "through," it would mean that every independent judge on the Circuit bench is "through." It would mean the possession of the American free man, is through.

This is not exaggeration. Let the voter think over the case of Judge Scanlan and consider what its meaning is.

FOR AN ADEQUATE REGULAR ARMY.

By a considerable margin—193 to 159—the house has voted a reduction of the regular army to 150,000 men. This is in opposition to the urgent recommendation of the military experts and of the judgment of the senate which cut the experts' figures to 175,000.

The house is carrying its sudden passion for economy to an excess. The country will welcome real economies, for they are sorely needed. But it is not economy to cut the regular army below the point fixed by men who know as a minimum necessary to the maintenance of an adequate peace establishment.

So far as a force for war is concerned, it makes little difference whether we have 150,000 men, or 175,000, or 200,000. If we are compelled to make war we must at once expand our regular force by a very large levy of citizens. But to permit of such expansion we must have a sufficient skeleton of troops fully trained, equipped, and organized to serve as a basis of expansion and as a training agency in peace. We also must have adequate garrisons at the canal and in our island possessions and enough at home to relieve them from time to time and to provide a proper force for any probable domestic emergency requiring troops.

Back of such force we must have such civilian training and reserves as we can contrive to procure. But the regular establishment should be large enough to provide training facilities and personnel for an adequate civilian war army and to provide the fully trained specialists essential to the complicated and highly trained activities of modern warfare.

American professional soldiers do not favor any army larger than these needs call for, and their recommendations should not be overruled by shortsighted and uninformed civilians in congress. The house vote does not represent fidelity to the national need. It represents ignorance and stubborn refusal to heed the sanguinary lessons so recently taught us on the battlefield. It represents a concession to unthinking public opinion. It is not faithful representation.

MORE BUREAUCRACY

Representative Rainey of Illinois, Democrat, has made a forceful assault upon the bill for the regulation of grain exchanges now before the lower house of congress. He rebukes the Republicans for ignoring the wise declaration of the leader of their party, the President, who has declared for less government in business and more business in government.

If that is to be more than a rhetorical phrase, it must be respected by congress, when highly organized minorities or special interests or reformers with a hobby appeal vociferously for the intervention of government in the supposed interest of their particular affair.

In the case of the grain exchange bill, Representative Rainey points out that it means another bureau, more job holders, more interference with business conditions by politicians.

On the same day we read of another phase of the tendency to expand the central government's operations. This does not deal with government but with education. A bill proposes a department of education with a cabinet officer at its head. We are glad to find that Gen. Sawyer does not favor it, but would include a bureau of education in the department of welfare now under consideration. That, in our opinion, is what and where it should be. The states have well developed systems of education and it is undesirable to develop in the central power a great machinery of educational influence and control. This means more overlapping, more invasion of local initiative, more federal job holders, more centralizing standardization. It represents a bad tendency which should be checked, and we hope the President will set his face against it as determinedly as he has against the extension of bureaucratic interference in business.

THE WARNING OF D'ANDREA'S MURDER.

It has been the strength of Anglo-Saxon representative democracy that the verdict of the polls has been accepted by the defeated. Even where elections were known to be corrupt and the decision contrary to the will of an actual majority we have accepted the result where orderly processes of law have not been adequate to correct the wrong. This has given our system a stability which other republics or pseudo-republics have not enjoyed, and it has made always for our peace and progress.

But of late we have in some localities, among them our own, a departure from this wise rule. We have admitted to citizenship men drawn from countries where no such sentiment has grown up or been allowed to grow up, men accustomed to tyranny and the use of force. These have brought into our politics their own habits and traditions, and they have created a serious phenomenon in our political life.

The assassination of the local boss D'Andrea is a striking example of this evil. No more cold-blooded political murder was committed in the politics of the middle ages or in the politics of modern countries where medieval conditions survive to this day.

The American people cannot afford to ignore such evidence of the influence of the worst old world conditions. It shows force of poison and demands practical measures of defense. Men who bring such a code into American politics are not ready for American life, much less American citizenship. Such as already are admitted need discipline and education which they are not getting to any sufficient extent. And as for letting more in, that is criminal folly.

American society needs to protect itself from deterioration. It needs a period during which it can assimilate and truly Americanize a considerable element in our population. Any other policy is a policy of national suicide.

FOR THE SAFETY OF THE STATE.

The suggestion of county patrol systems as a substitute for the proposed state police organization should not be allowed to distract attention from the advantages of the latter bill. As illustrated in the present sheriff system, which is a form of county patrol, that plan lacks the very thing which is most needed and which would be supplied by a state police—coordination.

Eventually we will have a state police. Why not now? Development of the automobile and the improvement of roads have within a few years produced changes in relationships between city and country and between village and farm which cannot be ignored. They are not ignored by criminals, who have broadened their field of operations in direct relation to the improvement in their facilities for rapid transportation. A broader check on criminal operations is therefore a necessity. It is offered in the state police bill.

Opposition to the bill, we believe, is based largely upon a misconception of its purposes and possibilities. Some motorists, for instance, may fear that they will be prevented from driving forty miles an hour to a picnic grove. In reality it will prevent some thief from driving away the picnicer's car at fifty miles an hour. Some farmers may oppose it on the ground of expense. As in the case of every police force it will pay for itself through decreased insurance rates and in the assurance of safety which it will give. Some sheriffs may oppose it on the ground that it reduces their powers and prerogatives. Such powers and prerogatives are as reduced by merely being sacrificed to the common good in a changing world. Some labor organizations may oppose it on the ground that it will be used for strike breaking. It cannot be so used.

Altogether the opposition seems scattered and ill founded. If good citizens who want protection and the maintenance of order on country roads, safety from auto bandits alike on farms and at country banks, and a general decrease in crime will make themselves heard the bill can be passed. Every motor club in the state should be behind it with all its strength. Every farmer and villager should cooperate. City and county authorities charged with upholding the laws should aid. With a system of state police, regular road patrols, signal systems, etc., the way of the transgressor would be made hard indeed, while the way of the righteous would be made safer.

Editorial of the Day

THE MOTOR TOUR.
(Rockford Register Gazette.)

The inexpensive motor tours of a few days' length, which are becoming every year more common, have a value not always appreciated by those who have not experienced them. Part of the benefit is in the effect on our morale; the compulsory change in what occupies our minds. The mental stimulus is wonderful. Our minds need rest and change more than our physical being. We get it in delightful degree in going to new places; looking on strange scenes; satisfying the craving for adventure; finding relief from the daily routine; storing up pleasing suggestions; bringing back photographs of the tour for refreshing in our memory; learning by what we see is being done in other parts of the world.

Some of the most satisfying ideas have spread from coast to coast through the observations brought back by the tourist. These things count in maintaining the unity of the country. It is the privilege of practically every citizen to share in this privilege. The motor cars of this country have a capacity for carrying more than half the population and their number is multiplying. The motor tour is their greatest opportunity.

BROWN EYES! NAT, NOT SO.
The eyes that sent a thousand sighs
To Troy's lofty towers, and in their light
The eyes that regal Romans loved,
Where Egypt's palm trees flowered,
The eyes that caused the tragic fall
Of many a noble tower
Were not the eyes of loyal blue.
But mocking eyes of brown.

Blue were the eyes of Juliet,
Who loved great Shakespeare sang;
And grey blue the eyes of Lincoln,
When freedom's triumph rang.
And all the merry, laughing eyes
That loved me and were true
That I have seen, like God's own skies,
Were eyes of honest blue. O.K.P.A.H.

Horridities.
Sir: Prohibition has given an impetus to the study of flowers, and every day now, where the dandelions grow, and they grow everywhere outside the loop, one may see dandelion parties, pulling and snacking the seed heads, and they are very numerous. If one asks them if the tops are to be fed to the chickens they say, "WINE no." If one asks them if they remain quiet, when it looks to be a case of "Silence is golden." J. M. M.

Prayers.
Sir: Benjamin Franklin, even in his youth, was something of a heretic, or as some would have it, he was ahead of his time to care reported that weary of having his meals delayed by his father's "blessings," he suggested that a prayer be said once for all over the barrel of pork. Today blessings are seldom flung in any other direction than against the butcher, grocer, and cook. It is an unhalloved age. Which reminds me of a preacher, the made-over of variety, who prayed at the opening of a revival meeting that the Lord would grant his "most unhalloved blessing upon these people." HTS.

IT would have been far better at this late date that all cowards and traitors go unpunished than that the name of one obscure private who gave his all for his country be written down as slacker.

GRAMMAR—ANSWERS.
1. Which should be used, "Who or whom should the paper be read by?" "Whom should the paper be read by?" is correct. It would be better if it ran: By whom should the paper be read.

2. Which is right: "It is they or them?" "It is they."

3. Is this correct: "Let's you and I go?" No, for this is equivalent to "Let you and I go," in which "us" is superfluous and "I" in the wrong case. It should be written: "Let you and me go to, etc."

4. What rule is there for the subject of an infinitive? The subject of an infinitive is in the objective case.

5. Which word should be used: "There is no one who can swim as fast as he or she?" There is no one who can swim as fast as he.

6. Which word should be used: "He liked no one better than (she or her)?" He liked no one better than her.

7. Is this right: "They thought it to be him?" Yes.

8. Which is right: "One wants his own way," or "One wants their own way?" One wants his own way.

9. Which should be used here: "Every man, woman, and child bowed this or their head?" Bowed his head is correct.

10. Is this correct: "He begun to do it?" No. The sentence should be: "He began to do it."

How to Keep Well.

Questions pertinent to hygiene, sanitation, and prevention of disease, of matters of general interest, will be answered in this column. Dr. Evans will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual disease. Requests for such service cannot be answered.

TOO MUCH OF A GOOD THING.

THE Chicago Demonstrators' association is against prohibition, complaining that under prohibition it is not able to get bodies enough for dissecting purposes. In consequence the medical schools are finding it difficult to teach properly. The demonstrators are many years physicians may not know anatomy as well as they should.

Under the old dispensation a man would get drunk on pay day, lie around on the floor of a saloon or sit around a hot stove, contract pneumonia, be carted away to a hospital, and die friendless and alone. Nobody would claim his body and the dissecting room got it. Now that whiskey is legal and the demonstrators receive very few Saturday night drunk-pneumonia cases. A Saturday night drunk-pneumonia case had about as much chance to get well as a snowball not to melt, and no anatomy. The good of society demands that its doctors know anatomy. Who will volunteer?

For twenty years students graduating in medicine in Chicago have not seen a case of smallpox. The Detroit health department says that city has forty times as much smallpox as New York City has. Medical students graduating in New York City get no chance to see smallpox. In fact, the statement is true of medical students in every section of the country. Not one physician in twenty now practicing medicine has had experience with smallpox or can recognize a case in the early stages if it is at all out of the ordinary.

Recently a physician who had been attending a woman with an acute skin disease was not able to make a diagnosis of her case as smallpox until he became sick himself with an eruption diagnosed as smallpox, for which he was taken to the smallpox hospital in an ambulance.

When we get in the ambulance, his patient, they spent their time while riding to the hospital discussing the diagnosis of smallpox.

Smallpox is a very important disease. It is not necessary that it be essential. What are we going to do about it?

In Chicago typhoid fever has become an infrequent disease. The same is true of nearly all the other diseases. For students now studying medicine get to see a single case of typhoid fever. There is still considerable typhoid in the smaller cities and in the country. It will be a quarter of a century before the disease will come well under control in these districts. In the meantime it is necessary for the public welfare that physicians be able to make an early diagnosis in case of typhoid. In no other way can those round about be properly protected.

In the great Salem (O.) epidemic of 1917, which was prevalent for weeks following the war, the recognition of typhoid and many of them as typhoid. Such recognition followed

FOR CARELESS PARENTS.

A. writes: "Please say a word in your column for the poor babies who are fed from their fathers' and mothers' spoons. I have friends who would not dream of offering their spoons to me or of eating from mine, who nevertheless make a practice of feeding their helpless children that way. Aside from the danger of disease, it is forming an ugly habit, which will require time and patience to break later on."

BEWARE PIE AT BREAKFAST.

G. R. F. writes: "I am a man over 40. I have blood pressure of 140. In that high? What shall I eat? Can I smoke? How about meat, coffee, pie, etc.?"

REPLY.
Not if you are twenty years over 40. A person in middle life who has high blood pressure will do well to overcome constipation, live on bread, cereals, vegetables, fruit, and milk, take plenty of exercise. There is some advantage in not smoking and not eating meat, which was one of the bases of fast; otherwise it is all right.

CORNICA.

Chicago, May 10.—(Friend of the People.)—Can you tell me how large the island of Corsica is and the size of the city of Ajaccio. Is that the capital and is it a large port? W. V.

CORICA is about 110 miles long and 53 miles wide at its greatest breadth. The island contains a little over 3,300 square miles. Ajaccio is the port and capital. Its population in 1911 was 21,000. It has a large harbor, which was one of the bases of the allied navy during the late war.

WATER RATES.

Chicago, May 10.—(Friend of the People.)—I am interested in learning how it is that I am compelled to have a water meter on my premises when I have only a store with refrigerator.

Under the present ordinance, water in the same locality with a store, with a refrigerator twice the capacity of mine, a drug store, two flats, and a feed store with several horses all on the same piece of property is not required to have one. What is the rate charged for water when the meter is installed? GROCER.

Meters are required to control the water supply of premises coming under section 2755 of city ordinances. This provides that all premises the gross assessment of which is $40 or over must be metered and also all premises the supply of which is one and one-quarter inch or larger in diameter. We presume your premises come under one of these requirements. The other premises mentioned, if under ordinance, will be metered in due course of time. The rate or charge for water supplied through meter is 65¢ per hundred cubic feet, subject to a discount of 25 per cent of whole amount charged if paid within thirty days of date of bill. W. J. MCCOURE, Superintendent Bureau of Water.

SOUTHERN SCHOOLS.

Chicago, May 10.—(Editor of The Tribune.)—The letter of May 4 signed by L. S., concerning schools in the south, is evidence that he, too, is amazingly ignorant, unless he is attempting to willfully misrepresent the facts.

In order to be more specific, I find it necessary to eliminate Arkansas and Oklahoma, since I've never been in either, but when the gentleman contractor lays claim to any attempt to educate colored children in any southern state, ranging from North Carolina to Texas, as evidenced by his contact and their conversation, I would suggest that he go back south, enter school, and then converse with those people again. CONGRESS ASKED TO STOP SALE OF BEER IN CHICAGO

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., May 12.—(Special.)—Congressional investigation of liquor selling in Chicago was urged today by Oliver T. Remmers, counsel for the Anheuser-Busch Brewing company, before the house judiciary committee. Mr. Remmers sprung a surprise on the committee by joining with the Anti-Saloon league and other prohibitionists in advocating enactment of the new Volstead bill prohibiting doctors from prescribing beer. He feared that widespread use of beer as medicine would lead to further "dry" legislation that would destroy the soft drink business in which the breweries are now engaged.

Paints Chicago as Lawless.
"Conditions have been particularly troublesome in Chicago, where, as I am informed, many of the breweries have been manufacturing and openly selling beer," said Remmers. "If I had time to go into details I could tell you a story about this Chicago situation that would astound you. But if this congress wants to know the facts all it need do is to conduct an inquiry into the conditions in Chicago; the reasons why they are permitted to exist, and why it is that the prohibition enforcement office, to get any action whatever against the violators of the law, had to appeal to the attorney general of the state of Illinois to file injunction suits against certain brewers and saloonkeepers in the federal court."

"Law violations have been general throughout the state of Pennsylvania, in some sections of Ohio, and in certain isolated sections of other states. A congressional inquiry would readily disclose the facts and would do much in aid of law enforcement. We respectfully urge that such an investigation be had."

Witness Provokes Volstead.
Only one witness was heard in opposition to the bill today, while about a dozen leaders of reform organizations testified. He was Dr. John P. Gavin of the New York Medical association, who quickly aroused the ire of Chafman Volstead by raising the question as to whether "near beer to a sick man is what near statesmanship is to politics."

Dr. Gavin, with resolutions from the New York Medical association, urged that congress delay passing the bill until the American Medical association, meeting at Boston next month, determines in a scientific manner whether beer has any medicinal value.

Judge Charles M. Foell is scheduled to hear today at 9 o'clock two petitions to delay The Tribune company's suit to recover $1,004,586 paid Frank H. Mesco and Austin J. Lynch as city building experts on six street improvement.

One petition is filed on behalf of Mayor Thompson, the other for the city proper. Both ask that the case be continued until ten days after the legislature adjourns, because Samuel A. Etelson, attorney for both, is a state senator and is attending to his duties as such.

The hearing yesterday on these petitions was deferred by agreement until this morning.

8,000 BOY SCOUTS READY TO PLANT SOLDIER TREES

Wait Only Directions of American Legion.

Letters to "The Tribune" ask where money shall be sent to the fund for planting trees to the memory of the soldiers. Send it to Adj. William Q. Seifert, American Legion, 111 West Washington street, and mark it "Tree fund."

BY LEOLA ALLARD.

From every corner of the country come inquiries about the planting of trees along the highways in memory of the soldiers of the great war. The Tribune's plan is so far advanced that thousands of trees will be growing in their honor places by this Memorial day, and by May 30 of next year the roads of remembrance will be celebrated and all trees that have not been labeled will be given the names of the soldiers they honor.

Dr. H. W. Hull, commander of the Boy Scouts, sent word yesterday that the Scouts, who now number 8,000 in Illinois, are at the service of the American Legion.

Scouts Await Orders.

"We will await orders from the Legion and Adj. Seifert," said Dr. Hull. "We will help plant trees this year, or plant ours in the fall, just as we are directed. It takes a few days to notify our Scouts."

Mrs. Clara M. Alt, 445 Roslyn place, said yesterday that the Woman's Relief corps of the G. A. R. is going to the state encampment of the G. A. R. next week and will present the Tribune's plan for roads of remembrance.

In Kewanee, Ill., thirty-one memorial trees have been planted by the D. A. R. Offer to Help.

Gen. Henry Dearborn chapter of the D. A. R. wishes to help in the planting of the trees. Miss Edith Colom writes:

"Several of our members have sons and daughters who served in France as soldiers or nurses. How much money is needed, and tell us more about the trees. We want very much to properly do our part." Miss Colom is chairman of patriotic education for this organization.

Miss Genevieve McGinn, Chicago, says she belongs to a small club which will plant trees, and the matter will be presented to the organization at once.

ARMOUR GRAIN AND THREE OTHER FIRMS PUNISHED

New York, May 12.—[Special.]—The Armour Grain company, the Brainard Commission company, the Erie company and Lewis Proctor & Co. today were suspended from representation on the floor of the New York Produce Exchange for periods ranging from three months to a year and in one instance for an indeterminate period. The charge against them was the substitution of inferior grains in cargoes shipped to buyers in Germany, Sweden and England last year. The Armour company was suspended for three months.

Full Restitution Made.
The exchange committee found that not only had there been a substitution of inferior grades of grain and wheat chaff in the German consignments, but that inferior grades than those called for in the contracts were also sent to Swedish and English buyers. All of the shipments were put through the Erie company grain elevator in Jersey City.

While the special committee was carrying on its investigation it was found that the four firms had made full restitution to the foreign buyers.

It is understood that the substitution of inferior grades was made between the time of inspection and the actual sailing of the vessels.

ARMOUR STATEMENT.
A statement issued by the Chicago office of the Armour Grain company yesterday said:
"The acts charged were those of employees of our New York subsidiary."

His Hidden Disease

How It Worried Him Until He Made a Visit to the Public Health Institute

Worried as he was over his condition, he could not do his work efficiently and before long he lost his position.

A visit to the Institute and a talk with the kindly physicians made a new man of him.

IT is strange indeed the little that the public as a whole knows about venereal disease. Yet there is no subject on which the people should be better informed.

Many people look on venereal disease solely as a moral matter. They seem to think that infection can be incurred only through immoral exposure. Yet it is a fact, as any modern physician will testify, that a large per cent of infection is contracted through innocent contact with infected people and infected articles such as common drinking and eating utensils and other commonly used facilities.

He Suffered in Secret

Take the case of the man referred to above in this advertisement. He contracted infection, it seems, from chance contact with some infected person or article. At least it was certain that the cause was not immorality. But in his mind anything like such a disease was associated only with one thing—immorality. And he believed that no matter how innocent he was, the world would only see his affliction in one light, and that a light of condemnation.

Ashamed he was of his affliction, when he should not have been. Instead of going to a reputable physician, he sought to cure himself with patent remedies. But, as was inevitable, his condition became worse (and all the time, mind you, he was a source of infection to innocent others). Worried as he was with his condition, he could not do his work efficiently. And before long he lost his position and was forced to take an inferior one at smaller pay. There is no telling to what end that man might have come had he not fortunately come in time to the Public Health Institute.

Here he was received in the right spirit, in a sensible, humane spirit. He was made to see his affliction in the right light, and was made to see that cure in his case was comparatively simple if he would only come regularly to the Institute for treatments. The change that was made in that man in his first visit to the Institute was wonderful. He became himself again.

He regained his confidence. And today, after several months' faithful pursuance of treatment, he is almost in condition to be dismissed.

Are You Afflicted?

If you are afflicted with a venereal disease, the Public Health Institute is ready to help you as it helped this man and hundreds of others. You don't have to worry about the cost, for the Institute was established by the prominent citizens named here to bring the best of treatment facilities within the reach of everyone at small cost. It is possible to make the fees very small, because of the large number of patients handled. No one need stay away for lack of money.

And you don't have to worry about being embarrassed in calling at the Institute. We can handle 30 patients at a time, each in a private treatment room. There is no delay, no waiting in a reception room full of people. Privacy is assured at all times. Special department for women.

The moment that you come here and decide to let us assume your burdens, you will experience a feeling of intense and grateful relief, because you will clearly realize that you are in good hands and are adopting the best means for restoring health and happiness.

Convenient for All

The Institute is centrally located in the loop at 32 N. State Street, corner Washington. (Reliance Bldg., entire 4th floor). This is within easy transportation distance from any part of the city.

The hours are from 10 in the morning until 8 in the evening. Call for your treatments at your own convenience. No need to take time from your work. If you can't come during the day, come in the evening after work.

By all means act promptly, if you are suffering from a venereal disease. The danger is not only yours, but those with whom you live, those who are near and dear to you. Think of that!

A complete explanatory booklet will be mailed postpaid and free (under plain cover) to all requesting it.

ANTI-CRAFT BILL GETS SETBACK; HITS FARMERS

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Springfield, Ill., May 12.—[Special.]—Senator Esch's anti-conspiracy bill, a result of the Dailey legislative investigation of building conditions in Chicago, was stopped in the senate this morning after the measure had secured thirty-four votes—far more than enough to pass it—because of the fear that the farmers of Illinois might have a day it just as any other class of citizens.

Senator Swift, after the completion of the roll call, directed the attention of the senate to the situation. "I have not voted for or against this bill," Senator Swift said. "I am entirely in sympathy with it so far as it applies to building conditions in Chicago as exposed by the Dailey committee. But, two years ago, we passed an amendment here to the conspiracy act that exempted farmers from that law. I fear that this bill puts them back under it and kills our action of two years ago."

Kessinger Is Surprised.

"What's that?" cried Senator Kessinger. "Can this be possible in our bill here? Why, I must insist upon delay until we can look into it." Senator Eschington, in charge of the bill, although thirty-four votes already had been tallied for its passage, permitted consideration to be postponed. The senate this morning passed Representative Brinkman's house bill that empowers the sanitary district of Chicago to build such works and compensating plants in the great lakes or tributary rivers as may be necessary to protect the lake level of Lake Michigan. It also carries provision for a section of sewage disposal plants in Chicago.

Blue Sky Amendment Carries.

The Shearer bill amending and strengthening the blue sky law, already passed by the house, was passed by the senate, and the Smolkin house bill that amends the general corporation act as to the method of operation was approved by the senate.

Senator Sadler's proposed constitutional amendment, suggested as the substitute of Mayor Thompson's five cent fare traction bill—came out today without recommendation from the senate committee on public utilities, in the form of a joint resolution.

SUPREME COURT KILLS RYERSON INCOME TAX TEST

A decision which will save the United States approximately $250,000,000 in income taxes already collected was handed down yesterday by the Supreme court in Washington, according to advices received here by District Attorney Charles F. Clyne.

The decision was in the suit brought by the trustees of the estate of the late Arthur Ryerson, a victim of the Titanic, and is based on the increased value of stock securities. Among the assets left by Mr. Ryerson were nearly 10,000 shares of preferred stock of Joseph T. Ryerson & Sons. In 1913 these stocks were returned as having a cash value of $551,000, but in February, 1917, they were sold for $1,280,000.

The income tax bureau directed that the difference be included in the income return, and the trustees of the estate filed suit.

WALSH REFUSES TO BARE SPONSOR OF 'GEER LETTER'

Rail Hearing Is Marked
by Clash Over Note.

Frank P. Walsh, counsel for the railway labor unions, appearing yesterday before the United States railroad labor board, admitted the famous "Geer defense letter," which caused such a sensation when introduced as evidence by the unions on March 22, was not authentic.

Following Mr. Walsh's admission Attorney J. M. Sheen, for the railroads, demanded that the authenticity of the letter be revealed. Mr. Walsh declined. The board, by resolution adopted in executive session, then requested Mr. Walsh and B. M. Jewell, president of the railway labor department of the American Federation of Labor, to present evidence of the origin and authorship of the letter.

Walsh Stands Pat.
The man from whom this letter was received will not tell this board where he got it nor betray the confidence of the man who gave him the information," Mr. Walsh asserted. "Our witnesses will protect those who furnished the information. If the railroad gentlemen wish to question the witnesses, they are here; but we will take no further action. I will not be moved from my determination."

The letter, purporting to have been signed by I. W. Geer, general manager of the southeastern region of the Pennsylvania lines, with headquarters in St. Louis, carried instructions to all "supervisory employees" to ascertain the views of employees on wage reductions, "resorting to defamation of all labor organizations if necessary."

Geer Repudiates Letter.
Mr. Geer testified he never had heard of the letter until it was introduced before the board.

Plea of Nurse Saves
Over-Arduous Soldier

The earnest plea of Miss Agnes Cruck, nurse in the Auburn Park hospital, won the freedom of Albert Hess in Judge Hayes' courtroom yesterday. Hess, a war veteran with numerous medals, had been undergoing treatment at the hospital. Sunday he asked Miss Cruck to go out with him. She refused, and he drew a revolver and menaced her. Hess promised Judge Hayes not to molest Miss Cruck again.

MAXWELL MOTOR COMPANY SELLS FOR $10,915,100

Detroit, Mich., May 12.—Sale of the Maxwell Motor company by auction, as ordered by United States District Judge Arthur J. Tuttle some time ago to provide for reorganization of the company with the Chalmers Motor company, was consummated this afternoon.

The property was acquired by Walter P. Chrysler of New York, chairman of the reorganization committee of the two concerns, and Harry Bronner of New York, a member of the committee. The sale price was $10,915,100. Judge Tuttle had stipulated the property must not be sold for less than $10,000,000.

The sale today cleared the way for merging of the two companies, although further objection to the sale is expected to be made by first preferred stockholders of the Maxwell company. The stockholders recently petitioned the court to postpone the sale.

The court denied the petitions, but the stockholders obtained permission to file new petitions.

Goodyear Papers Filed.
Columbus, O., May 12.—The reorganized Goodyear Tire and Rubber company of Akron today filed articles of incorporation with the Ohio secretary of state.

The articles provide for $140,010,000 of preferred capital stock and 1,500,000 shares of nonpar common stock. In all, there are 2,510,000 shares of both classes of stock. The fee paid the state was $280,010, the largest ever received by Ohio from a corporation for this purpose.

The reorganization scheme also provides for $30,000,000 8 per cent twenty year first mortgage bonds and $30,000,000 8 per cent ten year debentures.

JACK DEMPSEY
DOES 'HIS BIT' ON
'HOSPITAL DAY'

ODDS ON FIGHT

New York, May 12.—[Special.] The sporting circles today it was said that odds quoted on the Dempsey-Carpenter bout were 9 to 5, with Jack the favorite. A well known authority said he did not expect better than 3 to 1 for him at any time. One broker today placed $2,500 against $4,500 that Carpenter would last twelve rounds. He also reported a wager of $200 against $300 that Carpenter would win by a knockout within ten rounds.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 12.—[Special.]—Despite his decision early in the week not to permit any more outside inducements to lure him from his training camp, Jack Dempsey this afternoon devoted three hours to the worthy cause of increasing the popularity of "Hospital day" at the city institution. He consented to break faith with himself and interrupt his schedule because of the importunities of Mayor Rader.

The champion faced a galaxy of admiring mothers and cooling babies; patted the cheeks of infants, their tiny hands, and moved about, followed by the little eyes, whose possessors did not realize what it all meant or that in after years they will proudly tell of how they met the man who holds the belt as the world's greatest heavyweight boxer.

Many Wishes for Success. If the babies couldn't appreciate it, the mothers did, and the good-natured pugilist had to smile continually because of the hearty wishes for success that were showered upon him. Proud papers were plentiful, too, and if their greetings were more reserved they were none the less sincere.

Dempsey is now in the swing of his training. He was up early, as usual, this morning, and did six miles on the road before breakfast. The champion then stepped out on the boardwalk for several hours and lunched at his camp. After exhibiting himself at the hospital he spent an hour in the gymnasium at the National stadium grounds before going in for his evening meal.

FIGHT RECORDS TO GO

New York, May 12.—Although the opening of the public sale of seats for the Dempsey-Carpenter championship bout in Jersey City on July 2, the advance requests for reservations assure a record breaking attendance.

Official diagrams of the arena, distributed today, indicate that the amphitheater to be built by Tex Rickard will seat 50,000 or more spectators. The present plans, which are subject to alterations, provide for thirty-five rows of 50 seats and more than 100 mezzanine boxes, which, it is understood, will be occupied principally by women.

Back of these boxes are to be erected four rows of 40 seats and a similar number of 35 rows. These in turn are followed by thirty rows of 25 seats, three rows of 20, twenty-one rows of 15, twenty-five rows of 10, and eleven rows of 5 seats.

High Priced Seats Reserved. As the arena is to be an octagonally shaped structure, with a radius of more than 200 feet, the number of seats included in each of these eight rows may be approximately estimated. In the 500 seats already have been reserved.

Orders for these high priced sections are not confined to local patrons. San Francisco and Los Angeles enthusiasts have paid for 300 and 350 seats respectively. Three blocks of Chicago orders will be a total of $50,000 and an order for fifty similar priced coupons was received from London last night.

Georges Expected on Sunday. Carpenter and his party are expected to arrive here Sunday, on the steamer La Savole and Rickard is arranging for a special reception committee to meet them.

Carpenter will, it is understood, spend a day or two in this city and then go direct to his training quarters at Manhasset, L. I., where he will settle down to rigorous training, which will be unbroken until he is ready to have the ring in Jersey City.

FRANCE TO SEND
OFFICIALS TO GO

PARIS, May 12.—[By the Associated Press.]—France will be represented officially at the boxing contest between Georges Carpenter and Jack Dempsey for the world's heavyweight title in Jersey City on July 2. It will be the first time in the history of the prize ring that the government of a country has sent an official representative to an international boxing match.

Gaston Villeda, undersecretary of state for physical education, probably will be the government's representative. The party will live aboard the steamer, which will be docked in Jersey City, and will not sail on the return journey until July 5. In order to enable it to take part in the Fourth of July celebration.

Boxing at Forbes Gym for Wounded Soldiers Saturday

Harry Forbes of the Forbes-Ferrill gymnasium has added a worthy feature to the weekly amateur show on Saturday night. Forbes is going to put on the show for the sick and convalescing soldiers of Cook county hospital and no admission will be charged. Besides eight amateur bouts the veteran champion will have the aid of some of the best local men in Chicago, who have all volunteered to donate their services for this worthy cause. The show will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

REWARD INDOOR GIRLS WIN.

Edward Park Girls' indoor baseball team won a title by defeating the Lincoln Park team in the Lincoln League by defeating White Park, 20 to 15, at Lake Shore.

THE GUMPS—THE MAN WITH THE HOE

DESCAMPS OUTLINES
GEORGES' PLANS FOR
BOU WITH DEMPSEY

BY FRANCOIS DESCAMPS.
(Manager and trainer of Carpenter.)
(Written for the Tribune Press.)

LA GUERRE, France, May 3.—(By mail.)—Carpenter will be Dempsey take the lead during the early stages of the fight on July 2.

He will try to lead out the champion during the first round, drawing him to uncover as many of his boxing tricks as possible. He will fight a purely defensive battle until he gets a line on Dempsey's style.

We have never seen Dempsey fight, but we have a fair idea of his methods from the pictures of his contests with Jess Willard and Bill Brennan. Of course, we know that the pictures are not the best means of drawing conclusions.

We figure that he is a rushing, aggressive fighter and that is just what we want. We know that Carpenter has enough endurance and skill to hold off the champion for a few rounds and within that time we feel sure that Carpenter can learn what to do to beat him. Then he will go out and do it.

Dempsey will train for this fight, we know, and he'll be in better condition. If he is not he surely will lose the championship.

PAL MOORE GIVES HIS SERVICES FOR COUNTY BOUTS

Pal Moore, local boxer who won over Joe Lynch, bantamweight champion, in a twelve round bout at Louisville last Friday, yesterday donated his services to meet any navy boxer selected in one of the bouts of the charity boxing show to be conducted by Mrs. Frederick Countess aboard the U. S. S. Commodore tomorrow night.

Moore was one of the best fighters in the navy during the war, when he was at Great Lakes. Like other sailors who were in the service, Pal is only too willing to donate his services to any worthy cause.

According to Mrs. Countess, there will be no prizes for the part of the local audience. The promoters took the trouble to visit the powers that be yesterday and was given assurance that the show will not be molested. The contestants will be selected today and announced tomorrow.

There was a brisk sale of pastebords yesterday at the Wrigley building, where admission seats can be purchased. The proceeds will go to the Lawrence Hall for Boys.

SPECIAL FIGHT
TRAINS GALORE

Jim Mullen and Al Bloom yesterday announced they have assured 350 tickets for the Dempsey-Carpenter heavyweight championship in Jersey City on July 2, and will run a "Boost Chicago Special" over the New York Central. According to Mullen the tickets will arrive here by Monday. Reservations can be made at 127 North Dearborn street.

Joe Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, has taken an interest in the Chicago fight fans who wish to see the title battle, according to Harry C. Moir, who with Joe Coffey will run the Morrison special over the Pennsylvania. Three hundred and fifty of the choicest seats are expected at the Morrison tomorrow or next day.

FIGHT BETTING ON RACES IN KY.

Lexington, Ky., May 12.—[Special.]—An organized fight was launched today against betting on horse races in Kentucky and will be carried to the legislature which meets next winter. The Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, representing 20,000 women, all voters, yesterday considered a resolution to declare war on betting and will vote on a proposal to urge the legislature to pass a law which would legalize betting on races through pari-mutuel machines.

The Louisville board of trade, the largest commercial organization in the state, yesterday received a resolution against betting on races and deferred action for a week.

Jury Disagrees in Case
Brought Against Dempsey

Butavia, N. Y., May 12.—A disagreement was reported today by the jury in the action brought by Frank P. Spellman against Jack Dempsey, champion heavy-weight boxer, and Jack Kearns, his manager, for $100,000. Spellman sought to recover a share in profits on motion pictures alleged to be due him under the terms of a verbal contract with Dempsey.

CHAMPION BUCKLES DOWN TO BIG TASK AHEAD OF HIM

On the left we have Jack Dempsey getting his right wing limbered up outside his cottage at Atlantic City. The weather at the Jersey resort appears to be all that is desirable for training. You will notice Jack has taken them off.

Above the Utah mauler is dancing in a sitting posture. You might try it if you think it's easy.

BIRD NOTES.

C. SHOUP, Lanark, Ill., writes: "In our neighborhood we have a robin that has been at the same window in the back of a store building for four days, staying from 6 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the evening, continually pecking and flying against the window pane as if trying to get in. Then we thought that maybe she was after a cord that hung on the blind, so we put a cord and other material on the sill, but she never offered to touch it. What is the answer?"

After you have tried that one on your guesser maybe you can help O. F. W., New Holland, Ill. He writes: "I have built a martin house with ten rooms, three on each end and two on each side. The rooms are seven by seven inches on the inside, the openings or entrances being two inches wide and three inches high. It is painted white and gray, a nice looking house. The house was put up March 1. Martins have been here, but have never stayed. What seems to be wrong?"

The martin house, described above, seems to be O. K. Some birds are like some folks, rather notional as to apartments. If you have had any experience in making bird houses attractive to "fussy" birds, will you tell us about it?

JAKE SCHAEFER
LEADS HOREMANS
AT 18-2, 1,200-631

San Francisco, Cal., May 12.—Jake Schaefer of San Francisco took the third straight bit of a 4,000 point match of 182 billiards with Edward Horemans, Belgian champion, in play today, 400 to 303. Schaefer's high run was 99, while Horemans had 78. Eleven innings were run. The score at the end of the block was: Schaefer, 1,200; Horemans, 631.

Rickey Favors Change.

Like other men of wide experience, Manager Rickey is in favor of summer baseball for the college men. He told his listeners that he knew of innumerable violations of the college amateur rule and asserted that university students will continue to play for money regardless of the rule. Manager Rickey, however, believes, as several prominent Big Ten athletic heads do, in drawing the line at organized baseball.

PAIRINGS FOR BRITISH
AMATEUR SHED LIGHT
ON YANKEES' CHANCES

BY JOE DAVIS.

The complete list of pairings for the British amateur championship, which have just reached the city, sheds light on the positions of the American players which was not contained in the brief cable messages.

Bobby Jones of Atlanta, who is paired with G. C. Manford, heads the first division. He is many pairs away from J. Wood Platt of Philadelphia, but the latter is just ahead of Douglas Grant, who, at (Tribune Photo), though entered from the Royal St. George's club, is a native of San Francisco.

Just what position Jesse Guilford of Boston and M. Payton will occupy in the second round is problematical, as they drew byes in the first round. They probably will appear in the upper half.

Yanks May Be Opponents. In the second division our players are fairly well bunched, which means some of them may be opponents in the third round.

Francis Outimet is about fourteen places down, and following him comes Fred Wright Jr., the Massachusetts champion. It is possible they may clash in the second round. Chick Evans is four pairs behind Wright, while Capt. Fownes is three pairs behind our national champion.

Strong British Opposition. Jim Douglas, the former University High school player of Chicago, who now is at Cambridge university, is seven places below Fownes, and immediately following him comes Dr. Paul Hunter.

Lower down in this half are such strong British players as Sidney Fry, Roger Wethered, and Lord Charles Hope, so it looks as if the winner in this division will have to be at the top of his game all through.

NOTES OF THE GOLFERS

CHAIRMAN E. W. DRESSLER of the sports and pastimes committee of the Lincoln Park Golf club, has issued the schedule of the season's events, which will be inaugurated tomorrow with a medal play class competition at eighteen holes, the winner in each class being the first holder of the Class Challenge medal. Every available date until Oct. 22 is filled. The club championship will start July 30, play continuing on succeeding Saturdays. A fine schedule for the women players is listed, play starting on Saturday with a nine hole handicap.

Work on the temporary eleven holes that will tide members of the Butterfield Country club over this season is progressing rapidly.

Joe La Due, who for a number of years has been prominent in local tournaments, is among the new members at Olympia Fields. Charles W. Knoepfel, formerly a member at Calumet, also is among the newcomers. Another new member is Loren Holbert, who, fifteen years ago, was prominent in Intercollegiate golf, but who later moved to Wisconsin.

HOYLAK, England, May 12.—The British Professional Golfers' association has made all arrangements to meet the team of American professionals at Glen-eagles in June. The British team was chosen a fortnight ago.

The seven American amateur golfers have amazed the golf enthusiasts whose habitat is Hoylake. Within a few hours after leaving the boat they stepped on the green. This speed and hustle earned the venerable people here, who look askance at these modern ideas on the hallowed course.

The Americans already have won their way to popularity, for all golfers love a good golfer. The Americans qualify, all right. I was impressed with Bobby Jones when in the United States, but here in England he seems even better.

Without disparaging the ability of the British players, one must confess that the Americans, when teeing the ball, take an easy stance and hit without preliminary addressing. It looks more businesslike than the fidgeter who strikes only after due addressing. The Americans are quick off the tees and their drives nearly always are straight.

Hoylake has a reputation of being harder than it looks, but Francis Outimet and Bobby Jones made it seem easier than it looks. Jesse Guilford walked around in a most convincing, disrespectful way. Outimet hit the ball to the seventeenth green, every inch 300 yards, but Guilford passed even this. The caddies were staggered. They never had seen such treatment of the beloved Hoylake course.

Americans in Running. Platt is a good, steady player, but would be well advised to keep his head still. Jones is a good model for him to work from. Outimet's approach is not quite as accurate as Jones', but he is a gloriously happy golfer. I expect to see the Americans actively interested in the British amateur championship through most of the rounds. What a great match it would be if another Anglo-American final materialized.

NOTES OF THE CUE ROOM. Results of last night's game in the three fashion tourney at Polya were as follows: Opp defeated Sesserwith (36), 36 to 18, and Wilson won from Bourke (39), 39 to 17. Games for money were as follows: Opp (35) meets Neff (35) and Opp (36) will play Pope (23).

Tom Lit Makes Clothes That Fit

FIRST CLASS FINE ALL WOOL SUITS TO ORDER $19.50

I'll tell the world this is some value!

This price is less than others ask for their machine made, cotton mixed hand-me-downs. Furthermore, I challenge any tailor—I don't care who he is—to produce a suit of the same first class, all wool materials for less than $35.

I can give values no other tailor can give, simply because my low prices bring me a tremendous volume of business. It's true, I make a very small profit on a single suit, but I sell more suits than any ten tailors put together. My profit comes from big volume—many sales, not on single orders.

Here's another reason why my prices are lower than any other tailor's. I buy my wools direct from the mills and save the middlemen's profits and pass the savings on to my customers. It's easy to see why I can undersell any tailor in Chicago.

My price is low—very low—yet my fabrics are all wool, my tailoring is first class and I guarantee satisfaction in every way.

FIVE INDICTED AS FIRST CRIST OF BUILDING QUIZ

2,000 Houses Halted by Labor, Rosenthal Says.

Five indictments, the first to result from the activities of the Bailey building committee, were voted yesterday by the special building Cook county grand jury.

At the same time B. J. Rosenthal, state street merchant, real estate owner, and president of the Chicago Housing association, told the grand jury a remarkable story of building graft and irregularities. He related in detail how the unions had virtually nullified the efforts of the association, which was backed by such men as Julius Rosenthal, J. Ogden Armour, and Col. Abel Davis, who had undertaken this housing enterprise to alleviate the housing shortage.

How City Lost 2,000 Homes.

The project, Mr. Rosenthal said, was organized in 1919 for the purpose of building homes and selling them to people at cost. Forty acres of land were purchased at 87th and State streets and 175 homes were built.

It had been planned to build 2,000 more homes immediately after the completion of this first unit. Mr. Rosenthal said, but increased costs due to interference by union officials caused the virtual abandonment of the project. The houses were to have been sold for $4,500 each, but the association was forced to sell them at $6,500 to come out even, he said.

Some of the instances of labor interference cited by Mr. Rosenthal follow: In order to save money, window panes were dipped in paint instead of being painted by union help. When this was discovered by a union business agent the builders were ordered to have the frames repainted by union painters. After a fight the association building committee gave in.

Dice Games and Trouble.

Plastering was the next work. The committee had its choice of paying 65 cents a square yard or 3 per cent above the actual cost of labor. It accepted the latter contract, only to find a few days later that men were shooting craps instead of working. The committee called the police, but union agents came with the claim that union men could play games of chance if they wished. They also told the committee must live up to its contract. The final cost was $1 a yard.

Combination sashes and screens purchased from a mail order house also caused trouble. As they had been painted by nonunion men, the union insisted they must be repainted.

Five Building Men Indicted.

The grand jury completed the first phase of its investigation yesterday, and adjourned on Monday, when a new angle of Chicago's graft slightly was examined. Investigation of the existing and grafting industry was virtually completed yesterday.

Thirteen witnesses, including two girls, were called before the grand jury by Assistant Attorney General George E. Gorham. Those indicted include:

EDWARD MULLEN, WILLIAM A. NEWMAN, treasurer of the Chicago Contracting Team Owners' association and head of the grafting firm of W. J. Newman & Co.

ELI WINKEL, chairman of the executive committee of the excavating branch and the man most often named by witnesses as being the "shakedown."

EDWARD MULLEN, business agent for the Labor, Box and Shavings Teamsters' union. He has been associated with labor unions in Chicago since 1901. His son John, a policeman, was shot and killed by Eddie Morris at Lincoln gardens last January.

MICHAEL FLYNN, business agent for the Excavating Teamsters' union; successor to Eli Winkel, who was shot and killed in the office at 184 West of minimum street.

MICHAEL MCNICHOIL, business agent for the Excavating Laborers' union.

Following the voting of the bills Attorney General said the five had been indicted by witnesses as the "inner ring" which had collected graft money in various ways. The indictments charge conspiracy to extort money, conspiracy to boycott, etc. Some of the names were "war tax," "hospital assessments," and "dues."

BUILDERS TAKE NO CHANCE ON A PROFITLESS JOB

New York, May 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Evidence showing that steel metal contractors, architectural workers and pipe supply companies followed the practices of other associations in fixing prices for building materials, was introduced today before the Lockport committee investigating housing conditions.

It was shown by answers to questions of Samuel Untermyer, committee counsel, that associations of all these crafts prohibited members from accepting contracts previously let to other members and prohibited members from competing contracts awarded because of differences between members and members. Circulars and minutes of proceedings were read showing scales of minimum prices and mentioning percentages to be charged for overhead expenses.

"FROSH" THOUGHT

What a Co-ed Thinks About in First Year Told in Playlet by Southern Girl.

MISS ELLA TEAGUE.

What does a freshman co-ed think about when she enters her first university? The little lady's first impressions formed the theme of a play given at a college Y. W. C. A. meeting in Harris hall. It was written by Miss Ella Teague of Birmingham, Ala., a freshman. Emily Marsh took the part of Mary Ross Potter, dean of women, while Alvilda Ahlstrom was President Walter Dill Scott.

PUBLIC SERVICE LAW INVOKED IN HIGH RENT WAR

William H. Reid, commissioner of public service, yesterday made good his threat to prosecute any landlord who interferes with telephone, gas, or electric light service as a means of ousting a tenant. Invoking a state law which provides fine and imprisonment not exceeding $1,000 or five years for such an action, he obtained a warrant for the arrest of Attorney George L. Haight, owner of an apartment building at 4727 Michigan avenue.

Mrs. W. S. Bell, one of his tenants, had reported that she was being ousted. She refused to move. Last Tuesday the electric wiring in her flat was disconnected. After she had it fixed, she said, the fuses were removed.

Mrs. Thomas L. O'Donnell, 6934 Lakewood avenue, whose eviction had been sought, was granted a stay until Oct. 1 at her old rental by Judge Wells. It was her second victory over the landlord in a year.

The same jurist ruled in favor of Mrs. William Monford, 1429 West 69th street, who showed a 1919-20 fall lease, which was automatically renewed for a year through the landlord's failure to give sixty days' notice.

Following testimony that a verbal agreement of $90 had been made, Isadore Cowen of 6634 South Park avenue was granted a four months' stay of eviction at the same rental by Judge Rooney.

Ninety-five eviction suits were filed yesterday in the office of the Municipal court clerk.

Won't Part from Baby, So Mother Keeps Out of Cell

Mrs. Vesta Kasperalis of North Chicago refuses to be parted from her baby. When she would not pay a $200 fine ordered by Judge Persons for violating the prohibition law, there was nothing to do but send her to jail. But it is illegal to incarcerate the child. Therefore the mother still has her freedom.

They "Broke the Sad News"

ELIZABETH LEE.

Among the witnesses questioned yesterday by the grand jury in regard to Chicago building graft were May Croden and Margaret Croden Regan, stenographers in the employ of the Contracting Team Owners' association, and Miss Elizabeth Lee, the switchboard operator.

The girls, it is charged, acted as "breakers of the sad news" for an alleged graft ring, telling contractors what they would have to pay to the association after the amount was set by officials.

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 12.—Lyda Meyer Southard, charged with the murder of her fourth husband, Edward F. Meyer, a ranchman of Twin Falls county, Idaho, and suspected of the murder of three other husbands and the brother and child of one of them, was arrested today at Honolulu, according to a cablegram received by the Salt Lake Telegram. The woman, who is now said to be the wife of Paul Vincent Southard, chief petty officer of the U. S. S. Monterey, now in Hawaiian waters.

Prosecuting Attorney Frank L. Stephan of Twin Falls county says insurance was carried on the lives of all five men with Mrs. Southard beneficiary. Mrs. Southard, who is 28 years old, worked for a time as waitress at Twin Falls after Meyer's death. She departed for California last winter. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Trueblood, who live on a farm at Kimberly, Twin Falls county.

Evidence of Poison.

Prosecutor Stephan said he had in his possession evidence which would establish that poison caused the deaths of Robert C. Dooley, William G. McHaffie, Harlan C. Lewis, and Edward F. Meyer, respectively her first, second, third, and fourth husbands, and Edward Dooley, brother of her first husband.

Stephan said the bodies of these men had been exhumed and the contents of their stomachs analyzed by Herman Harms and Edwin F. Rodenbaugh, state chemists, respectively, of Idaho and Utah, and that a deadly poison had been found. The poison in each case was said to have been the same.

Her Marriage History.

Mrs. Southard's matrimonial history and the causes of her husbands' deaths, as given out by the authorities, follow:

Married Robert C. Dooley, an Idaho farmer, at Twin Falls, March 17, 1912; he died in Twin Falls hospital Oct. 1, 1915; typhoid being assigned as the cause.

Married William G. McHaffie, Twin Falls waiter, at Twin Falls in June, 1917; he died at Hardin, Mont., Oct. 22, 1918; death reported to have been from influenza and diphtheria.

Married Harlan C. Lewis, automobile mechanic of Billings, Mont., at Denver, Colo., March 10, 1919; he died at Billings on July 6, 1919; cause of death reported as gastro enteritis.

Married Edward F. Meyer, foreman Blue Lakes ranch, Twin Falls county, Idaho, at Pocatello, Idaho, on Aug. 10, 1920; he died at Twin Falls hospital Sept. 7, 1920. Autopsy revealed traces of poison.

Married Paul Vincent Southard Nov. 20 last.

20 Year Radio Franchise Asked by Banks Cregier

A plan for consolidating and improving the fire and police department signal systems at a cost of from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000 was submitted yesterday to the city council and electric light committee by William G. Keith, commissioner of gas and electricity.

N. Banks Cregier asked for authority to install and operate a commercial radio telegraph and telephone system under a twenty year franchise.

Declines Aid; Then Seeks It.

Then his hands clenched. "I won't talk any more. Not to any one. No one can help me. I don't want help." In another hour he had hired Attorney W. W. O'Brien to defend him and asked his friends to obtain $10,000 bonds for his release.

Drautburg was notified yesterday that Wanda had been arrested in Toledo. Other arrests here are expected. Gorka's arrest followed the attempt of two of his friends, John Paulek and J. Stanley Bartowski, to cash coupons from the bonds at the Illinois Trust and Savings bank.

Dr. Barker Tells Women How to Live 100 Years

Dr. Charles Barker, medical adviser to former President Taft, explained to 200 women at a luncheon under the auspices of the Rotary Club of Chicago in the Hotel Sherman yesterday "How to Live One Hundred Years." Work, exercise and fear of God were three points emphasized by the doctor in his health program.

SOMEBODY IS ALWAYS TAKING THE JOY OUT OF LIFE

PRIEST ASSERTS GIRL GAVE HIM STOLEN BONDS

Woman He Names Is Taken in Toledo.

Fifteen years ago a young graduate of a seminary in Poland arrived in Toledo, O. He called himself Father Anthony Gorka. As pastor in a little Toledo church he made the acquaintance of a young girl, Wanda Urbatis. The friendship ripened. Then Gorka left Toledo. For eight years he has been pastoring the Holy Sacrament church at New Chicago. For eight years he did not see Wanda Urbatis. Then, one day—it was several months ago—and Father Gorka was passing the Englewood station of the Pennsylvania railroad—Wanda reappeared. Fate was unkind.

Gives Him a Package.

"Father, dear father," she pleaded. You remember Wanda? Wanda of Toledo? She thrust a package, he says, into his arms. Then she was gone. Relating his story in a low monotone, tears coursing down his cheeks, Father Gorka yesterday explained to Capt. Thomas I. Porter and Peter I. Drautburg of the secret service, how he got the $55,000 worth of bonds—part of the $1,000,000 lot taken at Toledo—which they found buried in his backyard.

"I did not intend to use the money," he said. "When I discovered what the package contained, I was afraid. I buried it deep in the yard."

"Night after night I lay awake thinking of the fortune that was mine for the taking. The rest—you know the rest."

HEALY RESUMES JOB AS CHIEF OF DRAINAGE BOARD

William J. Healy, who was ordered reinstated president of the sanitary district of Chicago by Judge Jacob Hopkins in the Superior court, as a result of quo warranto proceedings brought by Attorney General Edward J. Brundage, took possession of the office yesterday. It has been held by Lawrence F. King, a Thompson leader.

Mr. Healy was accompanied to the office in the Standard Oil building, 910 South Michigan avenue, by two assistant attorneys general, his attorney, and Deputy Sheriff H. W. Langosch, who served the order of the court on William F. Mulvihill, attorney for the district.

Although an appeal was taken from the court order, the next term at which it can be heard will be in October. It was said it is probable the Appellate court will not reach the case until next spring.

FAKE DRY AGENTS PUT IN JAIL BY FIGHTING RABBI

Got $140 from Him and His Housekeeper.

Two men who admit they "shook down" a rabbi for $100, and his housekeeper for $40, after he sold them a gallon of sacramental wine, were arrested by federal authorities yesterday and held for hearing before Commissioner James R. Glass.

Clifford Keegan, 2730 West Lexington street, a guard for Ralph W. Stone, federal prohibition chief, at the Ribley warehouse, and Muriel William Meyers, 323 South Hoyne avenue, are the men held.

Confess "Frameup."

Both confessed to A. C. Earnshaw, head of the intelligence unit of the revenue department, and Patrick T. Roche, special agent, who made the arrest, that they "framed" on Rabbi Michael Lipshitz, 3439 West Twelfth street.

They told how they bought a gallon of wine from him, then flashed their gold stars.

"We're revenue men," they told the rabbi. "We are forced by duty to arrest you."

The rabbi took them to his room. There he suddenly became militant and started a fight which ended in victory for the pseudo federal agents only when they drew revolvers. He paid them $100 as "hush" money.

Housekeeper Pays $40.

The housekeeper contributed an additional $40 when the two "revenue men" returned several days later and threatened to arrest the whole household for the rabbi's indiscretion. "I'll stand by the rabbi; he's a good man," she is reported to have said.

YOUTH HELD AS CLEW TO MISSING 17 YEAR OLD GIRL

Arlington Pond, a 24 year old employee of the Burroughs Adding Machine company, was locked up at the detective bureau last night after he had been questioned by Assistant State Attorney Bess L. Sullivan and Harold Chod in regard to the disappearance of Chod's 17 year old sister, Estelle.

Estelle left home four weeks ago for her brother's reprimand after going with Pond. She visited relatives in Michigan and then, ten days ago, left them to return to her brother. She has not been seen since.

Pond refused to tell where he is living. The police think Estelle is living with him, hence his reticence. Detective Sergeants Bullard and Freeman will try to locate his residence.

Burglars Get $5,000 Goods in Prairie Avenue Home

Mrs. Lillian Afremow, 5536 Prairie avenue, whose husband is president of the Juvenile Manufacturing company, 324 South Market street, reported her home was robbed of articles valued at about $5,000 yesterday during her absence.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Question.

What do you think of Edison's series of questions?

Where Asked.

Washington and Dearborn streets.

The Answers.

Joe Mitchell, 1725 Wilson avenue, law clerk—I thought they were pretty good. If they were put up to me I would register extremely ignorant, although I managed to answer about one-third of those printed. This still leaves me out of the running.

Ethel Epstein, 1342 South Springfield avenue, stenographer—Some of his questions are a little too severe, and I would say quite unnecessary, as they do not apply to subjects that the average person would have anything to do with in a day's work.

A. C. Wright, 721 9th street, Wilmette, draftsman—Edison, being a genius himself, should not expect every one to know all of that stuff. In the first place, it isn't necessary to the average man's work to know it all, and in the second place some of it is absolutely absurd.

Miss B. Zolun, 5846 Calumet avenue, stenographer—That's a good test to put the college men through and they should be able to answer most of the questions. He should not, however, ask the average person those questions, because the average worker hasn't been to college.

George L. Lawrence, 6319 Wayne avenue, draftsman—I say the questions as a whole are rather foolish and do not ask many things that the average person needs to know to hold down a good job. Is there any work in the Edison plants which would require the worker to know where we get sardines?

ONE CHICAGOAN IN ARMY'S NEW SLACKER LIST

Heroes, One a Colonel, in First Batch Given Out.

The names of 86 more alleged slackers in the 6th army corps were made public last night by the war department, but only one was a Chicagoan. Twenty-seven were from Galesburg, eight from West Hammond, eight from Harvey, seven from Burnham, and three from Blue Island. Others were from South Holland, Tinley Park, Riverdale, Homewood, Lansing, Hazel Crest, Dolton, Phoenix, San Jose, Cornland, Lincoln, Broadwell, Rockford, Bensenville, Desplaines, Palatine, Franklin Park, Elwood Park, and Glenview.

Find Errors in First List.

It was discovered yesterday that two men who served in the world war had been unjustly termed deserters in the first slacker list sent out by the war department for the Chicago district. The errors were made, according to war department officials, because of incomplete reports by the local draft boards.

Heading the first list was the name of William Sutherland Bacon. His address was given as the Del Prado hotel. Two years ago Col. William Sutherland Bacon of Macomb, Ill., married Miss Katherine Blossom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Blossom of Hubbard Woods.

Col. Bacon entered the army as an enlisted man. He became an officer and was a lieutenant colonel when the war ended.

Draft Board's Mistake.

Col. Bacon is living in New York at present. Officials of the war department explain that a grievous error in the record of draft board No. 15 was to blame for his name being on the slacker list.

James J. Slattery, 2314 West 21st street, is also on the list. According to his sister, Mrs. John E. Francis, who lives at the same address, Slattery served with the Canadian forces. He was wounded twice. He left his sister's home three years ago, and has not been heard from since. According to the war department officials, Slattery registered in the draft, then went to Canada and enlisted, and neglected to make his service known to the board.

Others Can't Be Traced.

Three families at 2727 Ogden avenue failed to remember Henry H. Farmer. The persons living at 1537 South Fairfield avenue could not remember Ignace Ilewicz, who, according to the list, gave that address as his home. John Schuyler, whose mother, Mrs. Babetta Weigle, lives at 1501 South Kedzie avenue, is wanted by the police for tawling worthless checks. His name is in the slacker list.

At 5514 Dorchester avenue no one had ever heard of Frank Friend. Edward William Nebers, according to neighbors, may have occupied an apartment at 854 East 55th street three years ago. The neighbors recollect the name.

Data on Others Named.

The TRIBUNE'S investigation of other men on the slacker list resulted as follows:

MARTIN LEVINE—Two old people named Levine moved from home at 609 South State street last week to vicinity of 64th street and Cottage Grove avenue. They are supposed to have a married son who is living with them. Left no definite address.

FRANK R. WHITE, 1377 East 57th street—Unknown.

JOHN RYAN—Lived in apartment No. 2 at 5847 Calumet avenue about one and one-half years ago. Left no address; young married man.

WILLIAM WILLIAMSON, Negro—Lived at 5700 Wabash avenue about two years ago. Left suddenly for the south.

LESLIE WORTHING—Rented flat at 354 East 60th street with wife and child. About a year and a half ago left for home in Birmingham, England.

WILLIAM L. THOMAS, 5719 Dorchester—Unknown.

ROBERT A. LA MOTHE—Owner of building is sure she never had tenant of that name at 5634 South Calumet avenue.

PROTESTS TO CAPITOL.

Washington, D. C., May 12.—(Special.)—Representative Johnson (South Dakota) a veteran of the world war, has decided not to avail himself for the present of the permission recently obtained from the house to print in the Congressional Record the so-called slacker lists of the war department. He will wait until the lists have been thoroughly checked because of the inaccuracies which have appeared in the lists that have been made public by the department. The errors in these lists have brought a storm of disapproval on the war department that has been reflected in the mail of members of congress.

SHE WAS ready to forego powder puff and parasol and take up rouge and cigarettes to keep the avenue of adventure unobstructed.

RAILROAD NOTES

The Osaka Shosen Kaisha steamer Arabia Maru sailed from Yokohama April 30 with 4,700 bales of raw silk and 100 measurements of silk and silk goods, valued at approximately $5,000,000. This steamer is due to arrive at Seattle about May 14 and the cargo will be handled in a special train of twenty cars via the St. Paul to Chicago, en route to New York. Arrangements are being made to give the train a fast run. The consignment of silk is the largest single lot ever handled from the Orient. The Montague and Kato Maru have arrived at Vancouver from the Orient with $9,000,000 worth of silk.

At the meeting of shareholders of the Grand Trunk Railway company yesterday it was decided to ratify the agreement between the management and the Canadian government providing for transfer of control of the railway to the government this month.

Application was filed with the interstate commerce commission yesterday by the Southern Pacific for authority to guarantee payments of $500,000 first mortgage 5 per cent bonds of the Houston East and West Texas railroad.

Fore-Sighted Investors

THOSE who look into the future are the successful investors. They judge securities, not by their promised interest yield, but by their merit and the safeguards which protect them. Fore-sighted investors demand that the securities they buy must be so thoroughly protected as to be safe in bad times as well as good.

Such investors find their severest demands are met in Straus Bonds. For thirty-nine years—a period covering two wars and four financial panics—their record has justified our statement that they are safe. For thirty-nine years principal and interest on these first mortgage bonds has been paid in cash when due, without loss, without delay.

If you wish genuinely safe investments, you should investigate Straus Bonds and the Straus Plan. This Plan has made possible our thirty-nine year record of safety. Portland Railway, Light and Power Company

First Lien and Refunding Mortgage Gold Bonds
Twenty-Five Year 7 1/2% Series "A"
Non-callable during the first ten years

Strong Features

The Portland Railway, Light and Power Company supplies electric light and power in more than twenty communities in Western Oregon, including Portland.

It also operates The Portland City Railway System, which is showing a substantial earning power.

For the past twelve years 88% of the electric energy has been generated by water power.

Continuation of economical operation will be made possible through development of additional hydro-electric properties.

The Public Service Commission of Oregon valued the properties of the Company at a figure which is more than 150% of outstanding mortgage debt, including this issue.

Cash payment of $450,000 each year into sinking fund may be used for purchase of Bonds up to 107 1/2% during the first ten years and redemption prices thereafter.

These Bonds will share in a first mortgage lien on over 75% of the Company's generating capacity, including the largest hydro-electric plants and modern steam stations.

THE ISSUE

Interest payable May 1 and Nov. 1 Due May 1, 1946

Coupon Bonds in denominations of $500 and $1,000 each, registrable as to principal only and interchangeable with fully registered Bonds in denominations of $1,000, $5,000 and multiples of $5,000. Redeemable after May 1, 1931, at 105 and accrued interest and after May 1, 1941, at 103 and accrued interest.

THE NATIONAL CITY BANK OF NEW YORK, TRUSTEE

Interest payable without deduction of the Normal Federal Income Tax up to 2%. Four Mills Tax in Pennsylvania Refunded.

The Bonds, in addition to being secured by a direct mortgage, will share through the pledge initially of $6,700,000 First and Refunding Mortgage 5% Bonds in a direct first lien on over 75% of the Company's generating capacity, including the largest hydro-electric plants with a combined installation of 58,000 hp., modern steam stations of 31,000 hp. capacity and a large amount of other valuable property.

For the purpose of purchasing or redeeming First Lien and Refunding Bonds, the Mortgage will provide for a Sinking Fund requiring cash payments of at least $225,000 semi-annually beginning September 1, 1921. It is estimated that during the life of these Series "A" Bonds this Sinking Fund will retire in the aggregate at least $10,000,000 First Lien and Refunding Mortgage Bonds of this and succeeding series.

First Lien and Refunding Mortgage Bonds may be issued in the future, under conservative restrictions, only for refunding purposes, and for 75% of expenditures for additional property providing net earnings are at least 1 1/4 times the annual interest charges on the mortgage debt with the public, including the Bonds then to be issued.

Net earnings for the twelve months ended April 30, 1921, are more than twice the annual interest charges on all mortgage bonds outstanding with the public, including this issue.

Bonds are offered, if and when issued and received by us, subject to approval of local proceedings by our counsel. It is expected that interim certificates will be ready for delivery on or about May 12, 1921.

We recommend these Bonds for investment

Price 96 and accrued interest, yielding over 7.85%

The above information is based upon official statements and statistics on which we have relied in the purchase of these Bonds. We do not guarantee, but believe it to be correct.

Further information in regard to this issue of notes is given in a letter to us from Mr. A. B. Jones, president of the company, from which we summarize as follows:

These notes are the direct obligation of Kelly-Springfield Tire Company and constitute its only funded debt.

The proceeds of this issue will be used for the funding of its floating indebtedness and to furnish additional capital.

The company's outstanding capital stock at current market quotations represents an equity of over $20,000,000, ranking junior to this issue.

Net profits for the four years ended December 31, 1920, after depreciation, and available for interest and federal taxes, as certified by Messrs. Touche, Niven & Co., public accountants, averaged $3,269,006 per annum or over four times the maximum interest charge of $800,000 under this issue.

These notes will be used under a trust agreement which will provide in substance, among other covenants, that so long as any of these notes are outstanding:

GRAIN MARKETS

SAG; CROP NEWS MORE FAVORABLE

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

Less public interest, increased local pressure, and more favorable crop reports took the bull edge off the grain markets yesterday. While the finish was at a fair rally from the inside, there were net losses of 1/4 to 1/2 c on wheat, 1/4 to 1/2 c on corn, 1/4 to 1/2 c on oats, 1/4 to 1/2 c on rye, while barley was unchanged. Passage of the emergency tariff bill by the senate late Wednesday lost its effect early in the day and the selling that followed the bulge created a bearish feeling toward the last.

Crop reports from the southwest were somewhat more favorable from Ingles, who was in southern Kansas, while Le Count found poor prospects in Oklahoma.

Profit Taking Aids Decline.

A fair selling movement for profit on the part of the commission houses that had the best buying orders was responsible for the decline, as buying was poor. Lack of export demand, with easier premiums at the Gulf, was emphasized by the trade and offset the effect of higher cash premiums for hard winter wheat and of a fair milling demand. At the last the seaboard reported export sales at between 100,000 and 200,000 bu. Selling of May wheat was credited to the leading elevator interest and the buying to houses with seaboard connections, their purchases being on the break. At the top May was up 1/4 c from the low point to 1/4 to 1/2 c, from which it broke to 1/4 c, with the finish at 1/4 c over that figure. July was bought by a few local operators and gained 1/4 c, selling at 1/4 to 1/2 c with a break of 1/4 c, and a close at 1/4 to 1/2 c.

Corn Market Small Affair.

The corn market was a small affair with the range less than in the close of the week. May being 5/16 c and July 3/16 c. Traders oversold early and covered on the advance. After they had finished, prices declined.

Crop reports from the west and the trade was of the same nature. Commission houses sold July freely and active buying of July and selling of September was on the part of several of the best houses, while others did the reverse at 1/4 to 1/2 c difference.

Rye was bought by seaboard exporters for July delivery and local operators bought July wheat and sold rye at 5 c difference. There was also buying of July wheat and selling of September rye at 1/4 c difference.

Trading in provisions centered in lard, there being few transactions in ribs or pork. Gregson was the best lard seller and Hately the buyer, and considerable hedging was on. At the close lard was 20 c lower, with pork off 20 c and ribs 15 c. Prices follow:

MOTOR TRUCKS. USED TRUCK BARGAINS. WHITE. REO. CADILLAC'S. PAIGE. BUICKS. FORDS. LEXINGTON 1919. OLDS ROADSTER. TEMPLAR.

WHY IS IT? There are so few REO's advertised in the classified columns of the Chicago newspapers? This question is asked of us every day and it's a perfectly natural question. When you take into consideration the large number of cars in use in this city and vicinity it would be reasonable to suppose that there would be many used REO's for sale. As a matter of fact, there are very few REO's offered for sale except by this Company and its dealers.

We think we know the answer. Once a REO owner always a REO enthusiast, you know. When a REO owner gets ready to dispose of his car he comes back to us for another REO. He knows the satisfaction, REO dependability, REO service, and REO durability— all based on sound REO engineering—have given him; and so he has just naturally become a member of the REO family.

In our Used Car Department 90% of cars are REO's. Many of these are rebuilt and all are sold with a guarantee. Nearly every person who buys a used REO from us eventually comes back and trades it in on a new REO.

We now have on hand a large assortment of used cars and trucks. If you are contemplating the purchase of a used car, buy a used REO. A small deposit will secure one—pay the balance as you like.
